

Hopes disappointed after Iceland talks

After last year's summit talks in Geneva, President Ronald Reagan and Soviet leader Mikhail Gorbachev decided to meet in Reykjavik, Iceland, for continued talks on limiting nuclear weapons. Much was expected from the talks but little actually happened.

Liberty birthday party celebrated

Best birthday party of '86 was held for the Statue of Liberty. Thousands honored the statue's 100th birthday.

Pilots set around-the-world record

Pilots Dick Rutan and Jeana Yeager completed a six-year dream of flying around the world nonstop, without refueling. The specially designed plane Voyager and its crew took nine days in December to set a world record. The flight could spark a revolution in the American flight industry.
