Dee Messersmith

Longtime Sandy resident and retired millworker Dee Messersmith died on Jan. 19 at Mount Hood Medical Center of injuries from an automobile accident on Dec. 24. He was 75.

Funeral service arrangements are pending at Sandy Funeral Home.

Alma Phillips

Alma Phillips was born Alma Elizabeth Smith in Walnut, Kan., on March 5, 1918.

She was raised in Kansas where she received her education. On Feb. 4, 1937 she was united in marriage to Ernest L. Phillips at Fort Scott, Kan.

After living in Kansas for three years, they moved to Oregon. They resided in Parkdale, Hood River and Portland prior to making the Sandy area their permanent home in 1944.

Besides working as a mother and homemaker, Alma enjoyed quilt making, hunting and fishing.

Alma died in her home near Sandy on Jan. 9 at the age of 68.

She is survived by her husband, Ernest; two children: Ernestine Cain of Oregon City and Leon Phillips of Sandy; a brother, Louis Smith in Kansas; and a sister, Helena McDermid of Sandy; five grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Jan. 13 in the chapel of Sandy Funeral Home. Private interment was at the Sandy Ridge Cemetery.

Olga King

Olga King, a Sandy area resident since 1985, died in a Gresham nursing home on Jan. 17 at the age of 88.

Mrs. King was born Olga Arlie Stevenson, Mich., on Sept. 16, 1898. She lived in Michigan until the age of 16, when she moved to Chicago where she later met and married John B. King.

They lived in Chicago where they raised their family. Besides working as a homemaker, Mrs. King worked in retail sales for a short time.

After her husband's death in 1942, Mrs. King remained in Illinois until moving to the Sandy area to live near her son.

She is survived by her two sons: Harold King in Mexico and John King of Sandy; and 10 grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held Friday Jan. 23 at 1 p.m. at Geil's Funeral Home in Bensenville, Ill. Interment will follow at Mount Emblem Cemetery in Elmherst, Ill. Sandy Funeral Home was in care of local arrangements.

Kevin Spitzer

Kevin Spitzer, 22, of Eagle Creek, died Jan. 4 of injuries from an automobile accident near Estacada.

Kevin Ray Spitzer was born in Fresno, Calif., on Nov. 21, 1964. His family moved to Oregon and Kevin began his elementary school education at Gladstone.

In 1975, his family moved to the Eagle Creek area where Kevin completed his elementary education. After graduating from Estacada High School, he began working in auto body repair.

Besides enjoying auto mechanics, Kevin liked hunting and fishing. It was his ambition to build and design sports cars.

Surviving are his parents: J.C. and Mary Spitzer of Arkansas; his brother, Michael Spitzer of Colorado; and his sister, Cheryl Taylor of Eagle Creek.

Funeral services were held Jan. 9 at the Estacada Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Vault interment followed. Sandy Funeral Home was in care of the arrangements.

Parham Smoke

Funeral services for Parham Nicholas Smoke were held Jan. 19 in the chapel of Sandy Funeral Home. Interment followed at Cliffside Cemetery in Sandy.

Mr. Smoke died at his residence in Sandy on Jan. 15 at the age of 67.

He was born in Tyler, Ala. on Feb. 23, 1919. After growing up and receiving his education in Alabama, he began what was to be his lifetime occupation in residential and commercial decorating.

On Jan. 10, 1939 he was married to Sally Greene in Selma, Ala. They began their family in Alabama and in 1942 moved to Texas. They moved to Oregon in 1948.

Living in the Parkrose area, they built a cabin on the Sandy River in 1951. In 1956, they moved to Sandy to make their permanent home where they raised their children and where Mr. Smoke continued working in the painting and wallpapering business until semiretiring for health reasons in 1977.

Mr. Smoke enjoyed hunting, fishing and working at property investments.

He is survived by his wife, Sally; children: Patsy Sparks of Eugene, Paul Smoke in Texas and Terry Smoke of Sandy; a sister, Nellie Jackson in Texas; brothers: Arthur, Jack, Bill, Mack and James Smoke, all in Texas; and five grandchildren.

The family suggests memorial contributions be made to the Orient Drive Baptist Church.

Nebr., with a bachelor of science degree in nursing.

Public notices

PUBLIC MEETING NOTICE CLACKAMAS COUNTY MENTAL HEALTH PLAN FOR 1987-89

Clackamas County is preparing its comprehensive plan for local mental health services for the next biennium (1987-89) and establishing priorities for addressing unmet needs for services. Public input into the plan of operation for FY 88 and the long range priorities will be coordinated by the Clackamas County Mental Health Council. Service providers, advocates, and others who would like to participate in the planning process may attend program area subcommittee meetings scheduled as follows:

1. Mental and emotional disturbances (MED)
 2. Alcohol and drug problems (A&D)
 3. Children, adolescents and elderly
 4. Developmental Disabilities (MR/DD)
- The State and the counties have agreed that subcontracted services shall be opened for competitive bidding at least once every four years. The County will review whether to continue to subcontract or to operate directly some or all of the residential services, including the Semi-independent Living Program (Fairweather Lodge). The MED Subcommittee meeting will provide an opportunity for public input on these issues. Interested persons may attend that subcommittee meeting to make their opinions known.

MARCH 17, 1987
Full Mental Health Council Meeting
Agenda: Review subcommittee reports and recommendations for Clackamas County Mental Health Implementation Plan for 1987-89 and long range planning priorities.

Establish Mental Health Council recommendations to the Board of Commissioners. While testimony will not be taken at this meeting, interested parties are urged to attend.

All meetings will be held at 7:00 p.m. at Clackamas County Mental Health Center's Marylhurst office, Education Hall, Marylhurst Campus (one mile south of Lake Oswego off Highway 43).

Questions or written comments about the plan or long range priorities for unmet needs should be directed to Lorraine Huiitt, Program Planner, Clackamas County Mental Health Center, P.O. Box 164, Marylhurst, Oregon, 97036. Phone 503-655-8651.
