

Winnie the Pooh and friends

First and second graders at Firwood School participated in activities featuring Winnie the Pooh and other characters in A.A. Milne's stories. Among the activities were coloring contests, writing exercises and storytelling. Students saw safety films featuring Winnie the Pooh, and also made some of the stuffed bears pictured above. Pictured, from left to right: Nicky Wright, Eric Payette, Jessica Armstrong, Angela Skipper and Angie Felix.

Sandy church to host Singing Ambassadors

The Singing Ambassadors of the Multnomah School of the Bible will present a concert of praise at the Sandy Baptist Church, 33495 S.E. Jarl Road, at 6 p.m. on Sunday, Feb. 1.

The 12-member ensemble performs middle-of-the-road contemporary songs and arrangements that focus on the life and work of our Lord Jesus Christ. Excerpts from their repertoire include such songs as "Praise His Name and See It Happen," "This is the Day," "God is my Rock" and "Come Into His Presence."

Multnomah School of the Bible is an interdenominational Bible college and offers a 52 semester hour "double major" in Bible that is carried into five bachelor degree programs. Two master degree programs and a one-year Bible certificate program are also available.

Admission is free. For more information contact Sandy Baptist Church at 668-4064.

Picture This to debut at Eli's

Lance Miller and Brian and Mark Hadley, together with new bassist Tory Ward, are retaining the best of Picture Parade's material and adding new material in preparing for Picture This' debut on Thursday, Feb. 5 at The Last Hurrah, 555 S.W. Alder St.

"Tory hasn't played in many of the local bands or clubs and it's a blessing because he's a fresh face," said Miller, keyboard player. "That's by no means a detriment to his talents, however. He's one of the best context players I've worked with."

Brian Hadley, who plays the guitar, and Mark Hadley, who plays the drums, are from Sandy.

Senator sets meetings in Sandy and Welches

State Senator Bob Kintigh, R-Springfield, will be at Rippling River Resort on Saturday, Jan. 31 in Mount Hood meeting room D. An informal discussion will begin at 8 a.m.

At 10 a.m., Kintigh will be at T.J.'s Restaurant, 39024 Proctor Blvd., in Sandy.

"I sincerely believe that in order to be a truly effective representative for the people in our area I need to be accessible and available to the people I serve," Kintigh said.

"This is just the first public meeting tour I will hold this year in various parts of the district. I want to hear not only about their concerns but also hear some possible answers."

Foreign students to speak at BPW-sponsored potluck

Several foreign exchange students attending Sandy Union High School have been invited to attend a BPW/USA potluck buffet at the home of Sara Berger, 38015 Jonsrud Lane, at 7 p.m. on Tuesday, Feb. 3.

The students will share the culture of their countries through slide presentations, by wearing modern, festive costumes, and through a question and answer session.

Call 668-4723 or 668-5548 to make reservations.
