Tee Ball starts registration

The Mount Hood YMCA is now accepting registrations for its Tee Ball program.

Any 5- to 7-year-old boy or girl born August 1, 1980 to May 1, 1982 is eligible to play.

Teams will be formed geographically after the April 3 deadline date. Teams will practice once a week and play once a week for six to eight weeks.

The fee is $15 for members and $20 for non-members.

Registration forms are available in some schools or at the YMCA, 224 N.E. Roberts, Gresham. For more information, call the YMCA office at 665-8150.

Spring break activities set

The Mount Hood YMCA is offering a series of spring break activities, March 23-27, 1987.

Spring Break Day Camp will feature a week of learning located at the YMCA's Camp Collins on the Sandy River. Scheduled activities include nature studies, wildlife studies, hikes, arts and crafts, games and songs. A day trip to Enchanted Forest is also scheduled.

For those interested, the Mount Hood YMCA is offering a Camp-Out at Camp Collins on Friday, March 27. The overnight stay will include dinner and breakfast from the camp cafeteria.

Fees are as follows:

- Spring Camp and Camp-Out —

$63 per YMCA member, $73 per non-member.

- Spring Camp only — $48/member, $53/non-member.
- Camp Collins Camp-Out — $17/member, $22/non-member.
- Single days at Spring Camp — $11/member, $13/non-member.

For more information, call the Mount Hood YMCA at 665-8150.

Sandy sign-ups under way

Softball and baseball sign-ups for the Sandy Area Summer Recreation Association are currently under way.

The sign-ups for softball are open to children 8 to 18. Sign-ups for baseball are open to children 6 to 14.

The fee to play this summer is $25 per individual or $60 per family.

The organization is also looking for coaches and umpires. Anyone interested in playing, coaching or making money umpiring may contact Bill Riggs at 668-7583 or Rex Brittle at 668-5726.

Track club to start season

With spring just a few weeks away, the Sandy River Hawks Track Club soon will begin its 1987 season.

The River Hawks are looking for athletes, aged 6 through 18, wishing to join the cross country club.

The fee for sign-up is $10, which covers the cost of a TAC (The Athletic Congress) card, which is mandatory, and aids in supporting club expenditures. A copy of the athlete's birth certificate must accompany each application.

The River Hawks are coached by Darold Beymer, who is assisted by Vickie Dixon, Harry Simonis and Debbie Corbett.

The team has several returning state and regional Junior Olympics champions. This year's regional Junior Olympics will be held in Spokane, Wash.

Practice for the River Hawks begins Monday, March 16 at the Sandy Union High School track. There are five practices weekly, Mondays through Thursdays at 5:30 p.m. and Saturdays at noon.

For more information, contact Beymer at home from 7 to 8:30 p.m. at 668-4053.

Youths can sign up for race

Interested youngsters, 9 through 16 years of age, are invited to sign up for the Sandy Soap Box Derby race, which will be held this summer.

Boys and girls are invited to participate. Additional information may be obtained by calling Barry Fretz at 668-7028.

Aerobics scheduled

The Sandy Recreation Department is sponsoring evening aerobics classes on Mondays, Wednesdays and Thursdays from 7 p.m. to 8 p.m.

Claire Lehen, certified aerobics instructor, conducts the warm-up, aerobics, flexibility, balance, leg, abdominal and cool-down exercises.

Classes are held at the Sandy Community/Senior Center, 38348 Pioneer Blvd.

Fees vary with the number of classes taken per week.

For more information, call the Sandy Recreation Department at 668-5569.

Softball players sought

A Gresham, Troutdale and Sandy coed softball league is looking for more players and teams for its summer season.

The league will meet to discuss rules and other items at 11 a.m. March 14 at O'Callahan's Restaurant, 240 W. Burnside Road. Team representatives or individuals looking for a team are welcome to attend.

Games will be played Monday and Tuesday evenings from June through August at the Eagle Creek Softball Complex. Coed rules require at least four women on the field at a time.

The league is sanctioned this year by the Amateur Softball Association. Several Gresham businesses have teams in the league, which was formed two years ago.

For more information, call 665-3750.

Golf club starts play

The Mountain View Ladies 9-hole Golf Club began playing this week.

People interested in playing may contact Thelma Cody at 663-1853.

Annual dues are $8, which includes lessons for new members.

Food giveaway scheduled

A U.S. Department of Agriculture food giveaway for low income people is planned for Saturday, March 21 at the Sandy Assembly of God Church, 39800 S.E. Highway 26. It will be from 9 a.m. till 6 p.m. Cheese, honey and rice will be distributed.

People need proof of identity, according to Shirley Ellis, assistant team leader for the Clackamas County Gleaners. A current utility bill, driver's license, voter's registration or a personal letter with the addressed envelope can serve as identification, Ellis said.

Reading habits celebrated

Jerry Hardin's fourth grade class at Kelso School celebrated good reading habits last week with free pizza.

Hardin's class participated in a five-month program sponsored by the Pizza Hut Corp. Teachers set their own standards in the program.

Hardin required his students to read three books apiece per month.

The class met its quota, and students celebrated with a pizza party March 5. Pizza was provided by the Gresham Pizza Hut.

Festival seeks performing groups

Performing groups are being scheduled to appear at the Birdcage Theater for the 1987 Sandy Mountain Festival. Individuals or groups interested in performing should contact Bonnie Platt at 622-3713.

The Mountain Festival will be July 11 and 12.

Nominations open for court

Nominations are currently open for the 1987 Sandy Mountain Festival five-generation court.

Application forms are available at Sandy City Hall, 39250 Pioneer Blvd., and the Sandy Post newspaper office, 17270 S.E. Bluff Road.

Applications should be sent to: Sandy Mountain Festival Five-

Generation Court, P.O. Box 674, Sandy, Ore., 97055.

The queen must be 70 years old or older. The princesses will be between the ages of 7 and 70. Four princesses will be selected.

The queen and princesses must be from the Sandy area. The princesses, or her parents, must be active in community activities. The form leaves a space for listing reasons why someone should serve on the five-generation court.

Real estate office purchased

Oregon Realty has purchased the Mountain Country branch office of Stan Wiley's real estate office in Wemme.

John Clark, Steve Lucas and Jacquetta Willoughby, owners of Oregon Realty, are excited about the mountain area venture. Oregon Realty has been in business since 1947 and has offices at Mall 205, Raleigh Hills, Milwaukie and now Mount Hood.

Steven Post, former owner of Mountain Country Realty, will continue to work at the real estate office. He has over 20 years of experience in the recreational and resort real estate business in the Mount Hood corridor.

Van Tomlin also remains at the business. He has 19 years of experience, which includes management responsibilities at Tarbell's Gresham office. He was manager at Stan Wiley's Wemme office.

West Post, Steven's father and his top salesman for four out of six years, has 15 years of experience in the Mount Hood area. Other employees include Bob Thurman and Debbie Purkerson.

Thurman has several investments in the area.

Purkerson has resided in the area for 10 years and has experience in recreational and resort properties for both Stan Wiley and Rippling River Resort.

Rabbits subject of story time

The subject of the Sandy Grade School preschool story time this month will be rabbits. The story time will be held at the grade school library from 2 to 2:30 p.m. on Wednesday, March 18.

Preschool story time is for children ages 4 through 6. Children will have an opportunity to participate in stories, games and puppet shows.
