

In brief

Gallery features paintings of Hood

Sunny Eicher of Sandy is the featured artist this month at the Wy'East Gallery, 67380 E. Highway 26 in Wemme. Eicher, who lives eight miles east of work featuring Mount Hood and Timberline Lodge. The gallery is open from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m., Friday through Sunday. Eicher has a studio and gallery at her home called "Paintings and Country Things." And though she doesn't have a view of Mount Hood, it is unquestionably her favorite subject. Of the more than 580 paintings she has done since 1970, probably 60 to 70 percent of her paintings have been of Mount Hood.

Local youngster wins $100 prize

Jonathan Roberts, 10, a fifth-grader at Sandy Grade School, won $100 for solving a Cap'n Crunch mystery. The contest, sponsored by the Quaker Oats Co., makers of the cereal, gave the names of several potential villains. Roberts had to discover who was going to ambush the captain. Quaker Oats Co. gave out $100,000 in prizes, according to company literature. Roberts, the son of Mike and Carol Roberts of Sandy, gave 10 percent of the money to his church. He also gave his sister, Lisa, 8, $10 for helping him solve the mystery. He spent the rest of the money on a variety of toys, according to his father. It took Johathan two weeks and 2 1/2 boxes of cereal to solve the mystery, Mike Roberts said.

VFW members in parade

Members of Sandy VFW Post 4273 and Auxiliary participated in the Loyalty Day Parade at Eastport Plaza Shopping Center earlier this month. The purpose of the parade was to honor law enforcement officials, courts, the government and the flag. Those attending, in uniform, were: Don Blair, Ray Taylor, Al Gundersen, Al Russell, Voreice Blair, Delores Jordan, Penny Edwards, Mary Kubitz, Joan Gunderson and Goldie Oswalts. Les Jordan, a member of the Sandy VFW Post and state quartermaster and adjutant, was present along with

Special section deadlines set

Work has begun on the Mountain Festival special section, a publication featuring stories and advertising prepared by the Sandy Post newspaper. The deadline for both news and advertising will be Thursday, June 18, at 5 p.m. The special section will be inserted in the Gresham Outlook on July 1, the Sandy Post on July 2 and the Oregon City Enterprise-Courier on July 8. A total press run of 30,000 is planned. The Mountain Festival will be July 11 and 12. For more information on the special section, call the Sandy Post at 668-5548.

Police log

Police arrest 2 for theft

Two men were charged with first-degree theft on May 16 in connection with the theft of $435 worth of electronic equipment taken from Pioneer Electronics, 17040 Ruben Lane. A description of the vehicle and the suspects was given to Sandy police immediately after the theft at 12:30 p.m. Two people were arrested by Clackamas County sheriff's deputies about 2:20 p.m. in Estacada. Another man and woman were questioned soon after the arrest. Police charged Michael James White, 36, of Portland, with theft in the first degree and giving false information to a police officer. White also was served outstanding warrants from Clackamas County for failure to appear on two second-degree theft charges. He also was served outstanding warrants for failure to appear on a driving while suspended charge from Clackamas County and a driving while suspended charge from Multnomah County. Brian Phillip Sherwood, 46, of Portland, was charged with giving false information to a police officer. Sherwood also was served with outstanding warrants for failure to appear in Multnomah County on a concealed weapon charge and for a parole violation. Chris Mathew Larson, 31, of Milwaukie, was charged with first-degree theft. A woman who was with him was not charged. The equipment taken in the theft included two 35mm cameras, a tape recorder, a car stereo, battery packs and an electric shaver. In other police reports, Arnold Edward Linn, 47, of Boring, was charged with driving with a suspended license. Rodney Scott Chew, 22, of Sandy, was charged with assault in the fourth degree.

Scouts found without search

Three Boy Scouts from Lake Oswego were found about 8:30 p.m. on Sunday before a full-scale search and rescue effort was initiated. On Friday, three teen-aged scouts and an adult leader hiked into the Linney Creek Campground, which is about 14 miles southeast of Zigzag. On Sunday, one of the scouts sprained his ankle and Thomas B. Kitch, 48, walked back to his car and planned to drive back and find the boys. After Kitch reached his car, he was unable to find the campsite. He drove back to Highway 26 and at about 5 p.m. flagged down a sheriff's deputy.

said Russ Williams, public information officer for the Clackamas County Sheriff's Office. Six members of the sheriff's office began a search, and 12 members of Multnomah County Explorer Post No. 613 had assembled at the Hoodland Fire District's main fire hall in preparation for a search. But at 8:30 p.m. Deputy John Van Huizen located the campground and took the three boys back to the Hoodland Fire Hall. Williams said the scouts were well equipped and were experienced campers.
