Looking for a no-hitter

School is out and baseball season is getting under way, marking the official start of summer. At left, Kale Lundeen of the Sandy Outlaws, a team in the American League Midget Division, delivers a pitch to a Corbett opponent in a game last week.

Police log

On May 29, Steven Kent Yost, 33, of Corbett, was charged with driving under the influence of intoxicants and driving with a revoked license, according to Sandy police.

On June 1, police charged Antonio Reyes Rodriques, 21, with DUI, hit and run, giving a false name to a police officer, driving without insurance and driving without an operator's license.

Rodriques was charged in connection with an accident that occurred on Park Street near Beers Avenue. A parked car was hit in that accident.

On June 4, Ritchie Joseph Irvin, 33, of Sandy, was served an outstanding warrant from Lincoln County for failure to appear on a charge of littering in or near a waterway.

On June 5, Joseph Demescio Vara of Boring, 19, and Anthony Lance Delhaye, 21, of Boring, were cited for assault in the fourth degree in connection with a disturbance outside a local grocery store.

Vara was also served an outstanding warrant from Umatilla County for failure to comply with terms of a diversion program stemming from a DUI charge.

On June 3, Jack Cecil Gay, 58, of Warm Springs, was cited for DUI.

On June 6, Billy Gene Nester, 37, of Porterville, Calif., was cited for DUI and having an open container.

Naval Academy graduates Ray

Michael J. "Jeff" Ray, a 1981 graduate of Sam Barlow High School, has graduated from the United States Naval Academy in Annapolis, Md.

Ray is the son of Mike and Erna Ray of Rhododendron. He enlisted in the U.S. Navy in the fall of 1981 and was assigned to nuclear power school. There, a supervisor who worked with him suggested he apply to the Naval Academy.

Ray graduated 90th in his class. He received a bachelor of science degree with a major in aerospace engineering.

Anniversaries

Campbells celebrate 50th

Nellie and Merl Campbell of Sandy will be celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary with an open house on Saturday, June 13, from 1 to 4 p.m. at the Sandy VFW Hall, 38452 Proctor Blvd.

The Campbells' children and their families are hosting the open house.

Nellie and Merl were married in Ottawa, Kan., on June 12, 1937. At the time of their marriage, Nellie was working in an egg house and Merl was working in a creamery.

Merl was also in the National Guard and joined the U.S. Army to serve in World War II. He retired in August, 1974, as a sergeant major.

The Campbells moved to Oregon in 1943 where they raised their five children in the Boring/Sandy area. Also helping them celebrate will be their 15 grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Nellie and Merl Campbell are pictured in the early years of their marriage, and today.
