

Cowboy singer Chuck Edwards of Welches.

Welches entertainer performs in concert

WEMME — A Welches entertainer who has played with Gene Autry will yodel and sing cowboy music at 9 p.m. Friday, Aug. 14.

Chuck Edwards of Welches will perform as part of the Mountain Music Concerts presented by The Store Natural Foods and Cafe on Highway 26.

Admission is $3 and reserved seating is advised by William Frank, owner of The Store. Reservations can be made by calling 622-3130.

Edwards will return for the concert after a long absence from the area, Frank said.

Called the "Rocky Mountain Yodeler", Edwards has played with the Sons of the Pioneers, in vaudeville theater, and for the armed forces overseas in United Service Organizations programs. The Sons of the Pioneers once performed with Autry.

The next concert will feature country and ragtime blues musician Glen Delpit of Fresno, Calif., at 9 p.m. Aug. 21.

Senior center news

Persons who registered for the Yachts-o-Fun Harbor Cruise on Friday, Aug. 14, will depart from the center at noon and return at about 4 p.m. The one hour and forty-five minute trip will take passengers via cabin cruiser down the river to Swan Island for a view of the Portland skyline and port activity along the way.

Food preservationists may check their pressure canner gauges at the senior center from 12:30 p.m. to 5 p.m. Friday, Aug. 14. Robert Nelson, a volunteer affiliated with the Oregon State University Extension Service, will conduct the tests on that day.

A program on "Fraud and Other Con Games" will be presented at 12:30 p.m. Tuesday, Aug. 18. The program is part of a crime prevention series made available to the public by the American Association of Retired Persons. This brief but effective slide/tape presentation describes the frauds and swindles that are perpetrated most frequently and how to avoid them.

The second game of the summer croquet series will begin on the front lawn of the Community/Senior Center at 11 a.m. Thursday, Aug. 20. Anyone who can swing a mallet is invited to take part in this genteel but competitive exercise.

Arm chair travelers can relax and enjoy another far-away place or an Oregon treasure at the travel program that will be presented following the Loaves and Fishes meal at 12:30 p.m. Thursday, Aug. 20.

The Sandy Senior Center provides outreach, transportation, information and referral, health clinics, telephone reassurance and nutrition services for those 60 years of age or older and their spouses. For more information concerning assistance on other recreational or social programs, call the center at 668-5569.
