

New associate joins Sandy law firm

A new attorney has joined the law practice of Vernon Richards as an associate.

David John Barber had been practicing law in a medium size law firm in Portland before joining Richards over a month ago.

Barber received his undergraduate degree from Michigan State University in Lansing. He graduated from Cooley Law School, also in Lansing, in September 1984. He took and passed the Oregon Bar exam in 1985.

Barber said he is enjoying working with Richards. "I'm learning a lot. He's a good teacher."

Their practice emphasizes real estate, business law, divorce, personal injury, wills, estates and other general law.

Barber said he is glad to have the opportunity to work in a private practice. "I wanted closer contact with my clients, and to be more responsible for my own practice," he said.

He enjoys skiing and outdoor sports.

The Vernon Richards law firm, 38687 Proctor Blvd., is open from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. weekdays, including the noon hour. They are also available for Saturday or evening appointments. Telephone number is 668-4171.

David Barber said he is looking forward to working with clients in a small law firm.

Thriftway grocery store is under new management

Bowman's Sandy Thriftway has been sold to United Grocers. The food wholesaler is running the store until another buyer can be found, according to Jim Fisher, manager.

Another store in Gresham, also owned by the Bowman family, has been purchased by United Grocers. There has been a strike at the Gresham store, but Fisher said he did not expect a similar action in Sandy. Fisher said he hired all of the people who were working for the previous owners.

The management of the store in Gresham is different from the management in Sandy, he said.
