Mr. and Mrs. Rick Reasoner

Judy Duff/Rick Reasoner

A white lattice gazebo formed the backdrop for a garden wedding at the home of the groom's parents as Judy Lynn Duff of Sandy and Rick Reasoner of Molalla were united in marriage.

The July 18 date was significant as it was the date the couple met two years ago.

The bride is the daughter of Jim and Caroline Duff of Sandy. She was a 1985 graduate of Sandy Union High School and attended Taft College in Taft, Calif.

She wore a gown of taffeta and lace, which featured a chapel train, long sleeves and a high neck collar of lace. She carried a bouquet of pink roses, white carnations and mixed flowers.

Jeanne Sator, sister of the bride, served as matron of honor. Other attendants included Joni Larison, the bride's sister; Tammy Pond of Corvallis, the bride's cousin; and Kim Jones of Sandy, friend of the bride.

The attendants all wore mid-length dresses of white, pink, gray, blue and aqua floral print. They each wore bead necklaces and sashes of different colors that matched the ties and cummerbunds of the groom's attendants. They each carried a spray of mixed flowers.

The groom, a 1983 graduate of Molalla High School, is the son of Richard and Judy Reasoner of Molalla.

Attending the groom as best man was Todd McGann of Atwater, Calif. Rick McGlasson, David Shultz and Adam Byrd, all of Molalla, also attended the groom.

The groom wore a white tuxedo with tails and purple accessories. His attendants all wore dark grey tuxedos with tails and accessories matching those of the bride's attendants.

Pastor Wally Gustav of Silverton officiated.

Serving the tiered wedding cake were Joanne Keller and Linda Segal, aunts of the groom.

The buffet following the ceremony was catered by Jeanne Sator and Arlene Pond, aunt of the bride, and featured a roast pig.

Music was provided by Mike Everhart of Molalla. Circulating the guest book was Dorena Reasoner, sister of the groom. Lisa Pond, the bride's cousin, attended the gifts.

After a wedding trip to Pacific City, the couple is at home in Beaverton, where the bride works for Platt Electric Supply and the groom is self-employed as a remodeling contractor.

Melissa and Alan Dobbs

Smidt/Dobbs

Melissa Lee Smidt of Boring wore a family diamond pendant when she became the bride of Alan Ray Dobbs of Sandy on Sept. 19 in a ceremony at her parents' home.

The Rev. Dale Edwards of Sandy Assembly of God officiated at the 1 p.m. double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Harold and Helen Smidt of Boring. She is a 1984 graduate of Serendipity Academy in East Multnomah County.

The groom is the son of Odell and Cora Dobbs of Sandy. He attended Sandy Union High School and is employed by Ralph McDowell Corp. of West Linn.

Sherrie Nash of Welches was maid of honor. Bridesmaid was Kristi Mergenthaler of Portland.

The groom's cousin, Jim Tolbert of Estacada, was best man. Usher was Randy Duggan of Sandy.

Honored guests were the bride's grandparents, Muri Smidt of Carus and Bud and Marietta Brandon of Eugene; and the groom's grandmother, Vilot Price of LaPine.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The bride's aunts, Priscilla Gauthier, Kathy Smidt and Paula Smidt, served. The groom's aunt, Bonita Tolbert, presented the guest book.

Senior center news

The World Events/Foreign Affairs lectures will continue for another three weeks.

Jim Hart, recently retired after a 33-year career in the U.S. Foreign Service, has shared some of his perceptions of world events and other cultures with members of the class during the previous three week series. The class will continue to meet each Thursday at 10:30 a.m. Newcomers are welcome to the class.

A special invitation has been received from Alice Bankston to visit her at Mount Angel Towers on her 90th birthday. Following a tour of Mount Angel Towers, a congregate housing facility for seniors, a complimentary lunch will be served. The return trip to Sandy will follow a scenic route.

Friends interested in honoring Alice on this occasion may register at the center office. The van will depart at 10 a.m. and return at 3 p.m.

"Hawaiian Review," a musical concert by the Sandy Silvertones and Choraliers will be presented on Sunday, Nov. 15, at 5 p.m. and Monday, Nov. 16, at 7 p.m.

Images of tall palms swaying in tropical breezes and moonlit beaches, are certain to come alive with the staging of this original romantic musical written by music director Terilyn Newcomb Meyers.

Members of the Sandy Silvertones and Choraliers will perform a variety of vocal and instrumental selections from the islands. A reception will be held in the downstairs area following both of the shows. Only 100 tickets are available per show, so people are advised to reserve their seats early. Tickets are $3.50 per adult and $2 for children.

The center office will be closed on Veteran's Day, Wednesday, Nov. 11. The center will be open from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. for the Loaves and Fishes meal.
