County chapter of ACE to meet

The Association for Children for Enforcement of Support Inc., a national organization, will meet Thursday, Nov. 19, at 7:30 p.m. at Rowe Junior High, 3606 S.E. Lake Road, Milwaukie.

Brenda Breames, a Sandy resident, said people with questions about the organization may call her at 668-8781.

The organization provides educational programs to inform parents of their legal rights and remedies for child support and visitation problems.

It offers advocacy programs to ensure that child-support laws are justly and expeditiously enforced.

And the group offers counseling for families in need, and has a court-monitoring project.

Ernest Brookins plays the milkman and Jennifer Classen plays the mother in one of two families featured in Sandy High School's "Our Town." The play will be presented Friday, Nov. 20, and Saturday, Nov. 21, at 8 p.m. in the SUHS commons. The play is set in the early 1930s in Grover's Corner, N.H. The plot may best be described by a line of the play, which goes, "This is the way we were in our growing up, and in our marrying, and in our living, and in our dying."

Gresham theater group to perform

The Gresham Community Theatre will perform Friday, Nov. 20, at 8 p.m. at the Sandy Community Senior Center, 38348 Pioneer Blvd.

The 30-member cast will present "The Best Christmas Pageant Ever," which is described as a "charming and funny" story about the true meaning of Christmas.

For more information, call 895-5686, 666-1087 or 244-5148.

Firwood PTC plans bazaar

The Firwood Grade School Parent-Teacher Club will be holding its annual Mountain Craft Bazaar on Saturday, Nov. 21, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the school.

Hand-crafted items for sale will include stuffed animals, clothing, wooden toys, sweaters, Christmas decorations and other times.

Gospel music show planned

An evening of gospel music with a country flavor is planned for Saturday, Nov. 21, at the Hood View Junior Academy gymnasium, 26505 S.E. Kelso Road, Boring.

The program, which will start at 7:30 p.m., will feature gospel bluegrass by the Chehalis Creek Revival group.

Performers will include Bill Stafford of Portland, who plays steel guitar; Duane Kaiser of Portland, guitarist and singer; and David Wilson of California, musician and song writer. Wilson formerly lived in Sandy.

Tickets are $5 for a family, $2 for adults and $1 for youngsters under the age of 16. Children under the age of 6 are admitted free.

Hospice to light up tree

Mount Hood Hospice invites people to share the gift of love this season and give a memory for Christmas.

"Light Up a Life" Christmas trees will be lit throughout the state on Nov. 27. The Mount Hood Hospice will put up trees in Sandy, Gresham and Estacada.

The "Light Up a Light" program provides the opportunity to both remember someone in a special way and to support the services of Mount Hood Hospice.

The Mount Hood Hospice offers a program of care for people with terminal illnesses, most of whom have cancer.
