Helen Nelson and Harvey Griffin examine new flashlights donated to the Sandy Senior Center by the Red Cross. Deputy Dave Kennell of the Clackamas County Sheriff's Office has been distributing the flashlights throughout the county. The Sandy Senior Center received 100, which will go to home-bound seniors and in Christmas baskets, as well as to other senior citizens who need them, according to Sandra Potter Marquardt, director of community services. Kennell has distributed 1,440 to senior centers, battered women's shelters and a center for mentally disabled. "I feel they're going to good places, and to people who aren't as fortunate," Kennell said.

Senior center news

Members and friends of the center will celebrate the holiday season with the annual Christmas party on Friday, Dec. 18.

The day will start with a tree-trimming workshop at 10 in the morning and finish in time to enjoy a special Loaves and Fishes dinner at noon.

Everyone attending is asked to bring a gift to exchange for under $1.50. The gift should be appropriate for either a man or woman. Gifts tailored specifically for a man or woman should be marked accordingly.

Following a musical program by the Shively Family, a group will gather to go caroling at Bishops and Orchard Crest care centers to spread a little Christmas cheer.

A shopping trip to the Saturday Market is planned for Wednesday, Dec. 23. The van will depart at 10 a.m. and return approximately 3 p.m. Enjoy the crisp winter air and complete some last-minute shopping at Portland's outdoor "mall" underneath the Burnside Bridge. Many handcrafted gifts and works of art are featured. Additional shopping will be available at the fully enclosed New Market Theater, which also houses a number of interesting restaurants.

A special movie, "One Magic Christmas," will follow the Loaves and Fishes luncheon on Thursday, Dec. 24. The center will close at 2 for Christmas eve.
