

Weddings

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Rowell

Rowell/Wagner

Scouter's Mountain Lodge was the setting for the evening candlelight ceremony that united April Wagner and Douglas Rowell in marriage this summer.

The bride is the daughter of Dr. Mahlon Wagner and Peggy Almekinder Wagner of Clay, New York. The groom is the son of John and Marilyn Rowell of Sandy.

The groom, a 1973 graduate of Sandy High School, is a musician and the head of the Moonbaby Music Production Co. in Portland.

Obituaries

BreaAnne Marsh

BreaAnne Nichole Marsh, 2, died of cancer Thursday, Dec. 17, at Oregon Health Sciences University.

The funeral was Monday at Sandy Funeral Home. Burial was at Forest Lawn Cemetery.

BreaAnne was born Feb. 5, 1985, to Robert Marsh and Cindy Lewis. She was diagnosed with a tumor between her heart and her chest wall about a year ago.

She is survived by her mother, Cindy Lewis of Sandy; her father, Robert Marsh of Corbett; a sister, Jamie Marsh, 8, of Sandy; a brother, Robert Marsh, 6, of Sandy; her grandparents, Bill and Patricia Lewis of Boring, John and Orrilyn Marsh of Corbett and Frankie Bennett of Sandy; and her great-grandparents, Merle Wilson of Canby and Orrin Reese of Portland.

Besides working in the grocery business with her husband, Mrs. Paul helped manage their rental property. She was active in community organizations and enjoyed her hobbies of ceramics, gardening and rug making. She also attended church functions.

After her husband's death in 1978 she moved to Gresham.

She is survived by her two sons: Thomas Paul Jr. of Sandy and Charles Paul in Arizona; her sister, Mahrea Killough of Hubbard; six grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Funeral was held Dec. 21 in the chapel of Sandy Funeral Home. Vault interment followed at Cliffside Cemetery in Sandy.

Paul Emerick

Paul B. Emerick, founder of Emerick Construction Co. in Portland, died after an extended illness Sunday, Dec. 20, at his home in Eagle Creek. He was 83.

Funeral will be at 2 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 23, at Valley View Church, 11501 S.E. Sunnyside Road in Clackamas.

Mr. Emerick was born to Berton and Sadie Emerick on Aug. 18, 1904, in Portland. He was a former educator and retired chairman of the board of Emerick Construction Co. His company built numerous schools, hospitals, churches and government and industrial buildings throughout the Northwest.

Mr. Emerick had been an active member of the Associated General Contractors, Youth Adventures, the Columbia River Yacht Club, the Holiday Rambler RV Club, Eagle Creek Presbyterian Church and the Sandy Presbyterian Gallion Mariners Group.

He is survived by his wife, Ethel Emerick of Eagle Creek; two sons, Paul E. Emerick of Estacada and Dr. Charles W. Emerick of Portland; a stepson, Derrill Miller of Portland; a stepdaughter, Janice Gardner of Portland; two sisters, Zanana Means of Salem and Frances Emerick of Los Angeles; 14 grandchildren; and 23 great-grandchildren.

At Mr. Emerick's request, his body was donated to Oregon Health Sciences University for the advancement of medical science.

Memorial contributions may be made to the American Cancer Society.

Bateman Funeral Chapel of Gresham is in charge of arrangements.

Thomas Tyner

Thomas "Tom" G. Tyner, a resident of Boring, died Friday, Dec. 18, in Portland at the age of 55.

Mr. Tyner was born to Raymond and Cleta Tyner on June 13, 1932, in Tabor, Iowa. He moved to Portland as a young boy and graduated from Franklin High School in Portland in 1950. He had resided in Boring for the past 15 years.

He served in the U.S. Army and was a lieutenant in the Portland Fire Bureau, where he was employed from 1956 until his retirement in 1980.

He is survived by his wife, Shirley Tyner of Boring; three children, Thomas Tyner II of Lake Oswego, Gregory A. Tyner of Boring and Bradford J. Tyner of Boring; his mother, Cleta G. Tyner of Portland; and two sisters, Jackie Love and Georgia Anderson, both of Portland.

Funeral was Monday, Dec. 21, at Carroll Funeral Home in Gresham.

Private burial is in Willamette National Cemetery.

Memorial contributions may be made to Shriners Hospital for Crippled Children.

Thomas Newlands

Memorial for Thomas Newlands, a resident of Fairview, will be at 10 a.m. today, Dec. 23, at Sandy Baptist Church, 34435 S.E. Jarl Road, Sandy.

Mr. Newlands died Dec. 19 at Rest Harbor Care Center at the age of 78.

He was born April 7, 1909, in Portland, where he attended school. As a young man, he was employed as a logging truck driver for a local company. He married his wife, Etta, on June 30, 1934, in Portland.

He worked for Reynolds Metal until 1960. In 1962, he went to work as a custodian at David Douglas High School. He retired in 1978. His wife died in October of this year.

He is survived by his sons, John Newlands of Sandy, and Ron Newlands of Eagle Creek; his brother, Bill Newlands of Portland; seven grandchildren; and a great-grandchild.

Sah wins Voice of Democracy contest

Amy Sah, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Matthew Sah of Sandy, was the winner of the Voice of Democracy scholarship program, which is sponsored annually by the Sandy Veterans of Foreign Wars Post No. 4273 and auxiliary.

Sah, a sophomore, won over 13 other competitors in Barbara Smith's speech class at Sandy High School.

On Dec. 7 the VFW and auxiliary hosted a pizza party for the participants at the VFW Hall. At that time, Bert Key, chairman of the Voice of Democracy program, presented Sah with a $50 U.S. savings bond. Barbara Smith was presented a certificate of appreciation for her cooperation in running the local program.

Other winners were Pat Reagan, who was second, and Cheryl Cochran, who finished third. Other participants were Tracy Buss, Michele Byers, Aaron Gille, Pat Modjeski, Jeff Nealon, Jennifer Sah, Art Skipper, Lori Standfield, Heather Thies, Renae Welling and Maryann Wymer.

Sah's taped speech has been entered in the District 15 competition, and if she wins there she will enter state and national competition.

Senior center news

The Sandy Senior Center will be open Christmas Eve until 2 p.m. A Loaves & Fishes lunch will be served at noon, with a special holiday film, "One Magic Christmas," to follow at 12:30 p.m. The center will be closed Christmas Day.

Seniors who have a birthday in December will be feted at the birthday party on Tuesday, Dec. 29, at 12:30 p.m. The Sandy Silvertones will be on hand to play a selection of requested birthday favorites.

Persons who registered for the Mystery Trip scheduled for Wednesday, Dec. 30, will depart at 10 a.m. and return at approximately 4 p.m. The destination will be a location befitting the holiday season.

The center will close at 2 p.m. Thursday, Dec. 31, for New Year's Eve and will remain closed New Year's Day.

In case we have a cold, snowy, and icy January, everyone is reminded of the center's bad weather closure policy. If the Sandy Union High School and Sandy Elementary School Districts are closed due to dangerous weather conditions, then our center will be closed as well. Center staff will be on duty if at all possible to answer calls for assistance and to aid at-risk seniors needing shelter and food.

The Sandy Adventist Church will be used as a local shelter if there is a bad storm and there are power outages. If the center should close, the information along with other emergency information will be broadcast over the following radio stations after 8:30 a.m.: KGW (AM 62), KJWJ (AM 1080) or (FM 99.5), KEX (AM 1190), KXL (AM 750) or (FM 95), KUPL (AM 1330) or (FM 98).
