

MORSELS

Barry's Espresso and Bakery and Plaza Coffee Shop will both need to be out of the Rite Aid building at 28th and Willamette this coming spring, as it'll be knocked down. Both restaurants are looking for new locations now. Barry's will be opening another location early September where Sam's on Campus once was. Other unsubstantiated rumors: Old Smokehouse BBQ may be closing its doors, and Yi Shen market and restaurant has been feeling a bit of the economic pinch these summer months. These small, local eateries doing interesting, diverse kinds of food are an important part of Eugene's food scene — let's rally and support our good local restaurants.
