HEALTH CENTERED DENTISTRY

By taking a holistic approach and arranging for health rather than merely treating disease, we offer an opportunity to restore your oral health to its optimum.

We look at the whole picture, consider health and underlying factors, and take steps to perfect your smile while preventing problems before they occur.

EUGENE CELEBRATION 2003

PEACEFUL HEARTS

EUGENE CHILDREN SEND MESSAGES OF HOPE ABROAD.

BY ARIA SELIGMANN

Children of the proposed Eugene Children's Peace Academy, a public charter school rejected last year by the 4J school board because of funding concerns and now in the process of appeal with the Oregon Department of Education, will join with the Family Group of Beyond War during the Eugene Celebration to help other kids send peaceful wishes to children in war-torn countries.

At a booth set up during celebration hours, cutout hearts and art supplies will be on hand for all children to decorate to send to kids in Iraq, Afghanistan, Palestinian territories and North Korea. Although getting messages in and out of those areas has been quite difficult lately, arrangements have already been made through the American Friends Service Committee and future Peace Academy director Helen Park with several schools so the children will, indeed, receive the kind wishes, according to Peace Academy parent Wendy Strgar.

Adults are also welcome to create peace hearts.

The booth will also feature videos of peace speeches.

"This is the sort of activity the Children's Peace Academy will promote in Eugene," says Strgar. "We're trying to keep the voice alive, to urge people to keep the Peace Academy in your heart and send out hearts of peace."

The state is expected to make a decision on the revised Children's Peace Academy application by the end of September. ★
