JARRELL FLORES/WILLIAMSSIXTEEN
★ Best Hairdresser

Best Hairdresser: Jarrell Flores/Williamsixteen

Strangest job: This one, because people listen to me all day.

Best out of body experience: When I rafted the Grand Canyon.

Wildcard: What are my top three obsessions? My dog, my house and the outdoors.

Best Newspaper Reporter: Bob Welch

Strangest job: It's a toss up between raking beans in a Corvallis cannery, which often required me to remove dead mice and snakes from them, and working on a field burning project. There, the machines would always break down and only one guy could fix them. During the down time, two of us would go over the 'Word Power' section of Reader's Digest, testing each other and learning new words.

Best out of body experience: That's easy. 1994: Kenny Wheaton running down the sidelines after intercepting a pass against the Huskies to beat them. That was the play that triggered the whole Rose Bowl thing. He ran 97 or 99 yards; it was a wonderfully long 10 seconds as he raced down the field. You knew he was going to score and Washington was helpless and you knew we were going to win. We were hugging people we'd never met before.

Wildcard: Are you going to write about this award in your R-G column? No.

Best Female Musician: Laura Kemp

Strangest job: When I was a kid in Wisconsin, I worked in a cornfield detassling corn for $2 per hour.

Best paranormal experience: I dated a guy for a little while who was a channeler. Hanging out with him while he channeled — that was pretty crazy. He'd go into a trance and you knew it wasn't fake. He'd start speaking a language I knew he didn't know.

Wildcard question: Questions like, 'When will your new CD be done?' or 'What do you hope to be doing 10 years from now?' pop into my mind. But I am trying to live in the present moment and keep my life as simple and stress-free as possible. So I'll ask myself this: 'Would you like decaf coffee this morning or fresh ginger tea?' I've got a bit of a cold, so I guess I'll opt for the ginger tea.
