LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

crises these days because of the economy. Overall taxes in Oregon are about in the middle of the pack nationally. If you're worked up about waste, fraud and abuse, the federal budget should be your target. Don't take it out on defenseless Oregonians.

It costs very little to be kind to your fellow Oregonians in need.

Please vote yes on Measure 30.

OFFER SOLUTIONS

This is a general question to those in the Eugene/Springfield area. We all know Bush is the white devil, corporate lackey, yada yada. You write in to EW and moan and groan (to the point of sounding whiny) about him, his administration and his policies. But I rarely see you people actually put up an idea for a possible solution or what you might do. "No War for Oil." OK, how would you have handled Saddam and gotten rid of him? "No war in Afghanistan." OK, how would you have reacted to 9/11? People who do nothing but complain waste time and print.

At rallies you hold up signs and say, "No blood for oil" and scream about the injustice on your megaphones. But do you ever scream what you think should've been done? What should we have done with Iraq? With Afghanistan? With Al-Qaeda? With Saddam? News Flash: Isolationism doesn't work. Should we have ignored the genocide of the Jews living in Europe during WWII because it wasn't our problem? The UN is defunct. They are too worried about PC and who they might annoy to do anything. I'm not saying we should swing into any given situation like John Wayne was our commanding officer (though that would be cool), but when there is a time for action and no one else chooses to do so, then one must rise up. I proudly admit I voted for Bush and plan to in the upcoming elections.
