

WHAT'S happening

They're the last four nights of the Oregon Bach Festival: Beethoven and Penderecki at the Hult's Silva Hall on July 8; Celtic and Classical at the UO's Beall Hall on July 9; an organ recital by Mary Preston at the Central Lutheran Church on July 10 and Mendelssohn's Elijah on July 11, conducted with skill by Helmuth Rilling, at the Hult's Silva Hall. Lorna McGhee (right) and Heidi Kreutzen (far right) perform at Beall Hall July 9. See Thursday, July 8 Calendar.

The five-day Archaeology Channel International Film and Video Festival opens on July 13 at the McDonald Theatre. Featuring 19 of the world's best films and videos on ancient cultures, archaeology and indigenous peoples on the big screen, the festival also includes keynote speakers, workshops and even children's activities. See Tuesday Calendar and go to www.archaeologychannel.org

The Ladder & La Lune is a dance performance of collage movement by the members of the ZWELK Dance Cartel. Coming together to specifically investigate movement of fluid images, ZWELK strives to develop a new mythology of evolving archetypes through four pieces: "Asiatic Flu" – a dialogue on freedom; "Custard Apples" – a humorous parable; "Chakra Support Grupe" – six piquant and poignant tales; and "The Ladder & La Lune" – a resonance of physical intimacy. ZWELK derives its name from the first letter of each of the company's last names: Jessica Zay; Terrisa West; Quint Ehley; David James Lord and David Koteen. For three nights only at the comfy Lord Leebrick Theatre. See Thursday, July 15 Calendar.

When's the last time you got lost? The Oregon Country Fair features miles of forest paths revealing a secret mystery around every corner. Traipse for three days along the warm, dusty, wooded boulevards to the strumming of bards, the caterwauling of wee children, and intoxicating laughs. Support local craftspeople by buying goods in a quaint, beautiful setting. Treat yourself to treats, for food carts are always within an arm's reach! Your stomach shall not stumble. Enjoy twirling fire dancers, magicians, shady groves and falafel. The Oregon Country Fair is back and better than ever! See Friday Calendar.

Liberté, égalité, fraternité et sororité! In other words, liberty, equality, brotherhood and sisterhood, dammit! The Bastille Day Celebration thanks and honors the people of France on July 14 at 4th and Willamette. Featuring a "Let Them Eat Cake!" cooking contest, a re-enactment of the storming of the Bastille, live music, dance and more, Eugeneans pay respect to a country opposed to our latest war. See Wednesday Calendar.
