

NOW MORE THAN EVER

One belief more than any other is responsible for so much division in the world and bloodshed. It is the belief that those who do not share my faith, do not really share my humanity . . . p. 14