

Motorsport enthusiasts coming from all over the U.S. and Canada will be jammin' the midways looking and shopping for the latest in new and custom bikes, accessories, leather wear, parts, and hard-to-find, unique lifestyle elements. A Ride-In Bike Show and Motorcycle Rodeo promise to entertain, but the real highlight is a performance by the Motor City Madman himself, Ted Nugent.

Shakedown Campout & Music Festival

AUGUST 26-27. Horning's Hideout, North Plains, Ore. www.shakedown-fest.com

A new two-day festival and campout that promises to become a premier annual summer event, Shakedown features 23 hours of live music from 15 nationally known jam bands. One large stage is planned so a festival-goer can see every act, but a late-night acoustic gathering and strolling jam-minstrels are also in the works.

FEATURING: Michael Franti & Spearhead, Galactic, Medeski Martin & Wood, The Big Wu, Sage Francis, Soulive and many more.

Shakespeare in the Park

AUG. 6-28. Amazon Community Park & Center, Eugene.

Now in its seventh year, Free Shakespeare in the Park brings to life another of William Shakespeare's plays this summer. Free to the community, in an outdoor setting, casting local teens, youths and adults, Free Shakespeare in the Park presents The Comedy of Errors, a wild ride of mistaken identity, romantic blunders and a big family reunion. Bring a picnic, blanket, family and friends! Shows are at 6pm every Saturday and Sunday in August. A pre-show for children is at 5pm, as the Story Lady tells a synopsis of the play.

String Cheese Incident Annual Horning's Hideout Event
