

TASTY TREATS

McMenamins Bottled Beers To-Go (22 oz.)

Available at High Street Brewery and Café, North Bank, and East 19th Street Café, $3.95 each. Nine ales available, including Hammerhead, Terminator Stout and Ruby.

Give the perfect gift to your favorite college student — something they'll find new and exciting — the gift of beer! Maybe they've had one or two beers in their lifetime, but give 'em these ales and at least they won't be neck deep in PBR over the New Year.

King Estate 2004 Oregon Pinot Gris

Available at Market of Choice, $14.59. Pinot noir and blends also available.

The Willamette Valley is known for its Pinots, and this bottle is an affordable foray into the complex fruit flavors this grape can offer. The perfect gift for your friend in Napa Valley to show them what the Willamette has to offer.

Marché Meringue (six per bag)

Available at Marché Café at the 5th Street Market, $3.

Marché Organic Granola (16 oz.)

Available at Marché Café at the 5th Street Market, $5.

Marché Vanilla Almond Biscotti (six per bag)

Available Marché Café at the 5th Street Market, $5.

Just like everyone else, you've put off some last-minute shopping and need something fast. Forget a mall, boutiques with winding lines and online shopping — enjoy lunch at Marché and go home full, gifts in hand.

Euphoria Chocolate Company Box of Assorted Truffles (12 count)

Available at local Euphoria Chocolate Company stores and at www.euphoriachocolate.com, $24.95. Twelve flavors to choose from, or mix it up with the assorted box.

From Oregon Mint to Kahlua & Cream to plain old Milk Chocolate, Euphoria's most popular product has been pleasing the taste buds of Eugeneans for two decades. Warning: These go well with mistletoe.

Dagoba Organic Chocolate XOCOLATL Hot Chocolate

Available at Capella Market, $7.89. Also available in regular hot chocolate flavor.

Dagoba spices up this hot chocolate with flavors of cinnamon and chilies, meaning an organic body-warmer with a surprising bite.
