Adding a Little Spice

Eugene Concert Choir brings Latin music to its holiday show.

If the kids have anything to say about it, they'll be beating their handmade piñatas into the brightly lit branches of the Hult Center Christmas tree this year.

The Eugene Concert Choir will be putting on their Dec. 4 Christmas show "An Old-Fashioned Christmas ... with a Splash of Salsa!" at the Hult Center this holiday season, with special guests Caliente and Lo Nuestro, two of the three "Best of Eugene" - winning Latin bands.

"We worked with Caliente and Lo Nuestro before," says ECC General Manager Lisa Gislason. "We wanted to reach out through music to the [Latino] community and incorporate their music into what we do."

Having Caliente and Lo Nuestro perform isn't the only way ECC is showing off their Latin side. They'll also have pre-concert activities including a crafts table where kids can make their own piñatas and Plaza Latina will provide ponche, a Mexican holiday punch.

Along with Caliente and Lo Nuestro, Dance Theater of Oregon will add a visual element to the show, and the Neighborhood Choir Academy of River Road Elementary School will join the ECC on stage to sing "Gloria" from Misa Criolla, by Ariel Ramirez. "The kids are really excited," says River Road Principal Paco Furlan. "A lot of them have come up to me and said, 'We're going to be in a professional performance!'"

Pacific Continental Bank donated $2,500 for 100 tickets so that the families of these 50 students can attend. LTD also donated bus passes to help bring the River Road school families, many of whom are Hispanic, to a performance they might not otherwise attend.

"It's going to be a learning experience for the whole family," says Rebeca Urhausen of La X radio, an organizer for the event. "We need to expose the children to all kinds of music so they'll know what's out there."

Pre-concert festivities begin at 1 pm on Dec. 4 in the Hult Center lobby. Concert begins at 2:30 pm in Silva Concert Hall. Tickets range from $10-$28. EW
