RONNY ALWAYS watched in silence. He measured his breaths so his rhythm didn't deviate. In and out, slowly, but without a pause. Breath became background. He found it best to watch from the bushes. Business folk passed by unaware they were being stalked. Children played without fear. Lovers caressed on the benches with abandon. Ronny saw it all. He became so good at avoiding notice that he started daring himself. He'd sit silently, slowly removing his clothes. When watching in the nude wasn't enough, he started breaking his code of silence. He whispered as people passed, whistled while children played, and practiced magic while lovers wrestled. He found peace
