OUR FAVORITE CHUNKY CHIPOTLE SALSA FROM ASADO

Chef Sara Willis notes that this salsa is always better when the tomatoes are in season, but making it this time of year brightens up almost any meal. If you don't have the luxury of a gas grill, Willis suggests placing the veggies in a hot cast iron pan on a regular stove until blackened and soft.

Grill eight Roma tomatoes directly over the gas flame until very charred. Also grill 3/4 of a small white onion broken up or diced, making sure to get all the pieces thoroughly cooked and charred, and three cloves of garlic left in the skin.

Pulse onion, garlic (remove from skin before processing) and four canned chipotle chilies in a food processor until finely chopped but not blended. Remove to mixing bowl.

Pulse charred tomatoes and add to onion mixture. Add water to desired consistency. Let cool and then add 1/2 cup chopped cilantro and salt to taste. Always check salt content when salsa is cool, because flavors change.
