

“My center can pressure enterprises and force them to obey the law. Victims provide the best pressure to companies.”

as appeared in “Chinese villages, poisoned by toxins, battle for justice,” Christian Science Monitor, June 23, 2006.

Wang Canfa
Center for Legal Assistance to Pollution Victims
Beijing, China

The recent New York Times documentary, “China Rises,” features Wang Canfa as folk hero to the impoverished peasants in rural China. He fights for the victims of China’s environmental abuses, peasants in the countryside who have been hurt by environmental pollution. Wang founded the Beijing-based Center for Legal Assistance to Pollution Victims.

2006 Goldman Prize Winner Anne Kajir uncovered evidence of widespread corruption and complicity in the PNG government that allowed rampant, illegal logging that is destroying the largest remaining intact block of tropical forest in the Asia Pacific region. In 1997, her first year practicing law, Anne successfully went to the Supreme Court of Papua New Guinea to force the logging interests to pay damages to indigenous land owners. Anne is the CEO of the Environmental Law Centre and has collaborated with ELAW for more than ten years.

Anne Kajir
Environmental Law Centre
Port Moresby,
Papua New Guinea

Belarus • Belize • Bolivia • Brazil • Bulgaria • Cameroon • Canada • Chile • China • Colombia • Costa Rica
• Honduras • Hong Kong • Hungary • India • Indonesia • Israel • Jamaica • Japan • Kenya • Liberia
• Palestine • Panama • Papua New Guinea • Peru • Philippines • Russia • Slovakia • Slovenia
Uganda • Ukraine • United Kingdom • Uruguay • USA • Zimbabwe