SPROUTED SPRING SANDWICH FROM AQUILA & PRISCILLA'S

This grilled panini is Aquila & Priscilla's most popular sandwich. They make their own artichoke pesto spread, but use a sweet bottled cilantro lime vinaigrette. Owner Eric Smith says the order in which you make the sandwich is important: Drizzle the vinaigrette over the sprouts, so you have more surface area to trap the flavor. Smith says they don't measure amounts anymore, so when making your own artichoke pesto spread or building your sandwich, just wing it. They use provolone cheese on this sandwich, but Smith says it would be especially good with muenster or dill havarti.

Per sandwich:

One ciabatta roll
Sliced avocado
Thinly sliced turkey breast
4 slices of cucumber

"hefty serving" of alfalfa sprouts
Provolone cheese slices
Bottled cilantro-lime vinaigrette
Artichoke pesto spread (recipe follows)

ARTICHOKE PESTO SPREAD (makes enough for several sandwiches)

12 oz. artichokes in water
2 tbsp. olive oil
2 tbsp. pine nuts
2 tsp. chopped garlic

6 oz. mayonnaise
1 oz. grated Romano cheese
2 oz. fresh basil, chopped
Pinch of salt

Combine all ingredients in food processor until smooth.

To build the sandwich:

Slice the ciabatta roll. Place the sliced avocado on top and spread the artichoke pesto on the bottom. Layer the turkey, cucumber and sprouts on the bottom bun. Drizzle the cilantro lime vinaigrette over the sprouts. Top with the sliced cheese. Place the top bun on the sandwich and grill in a panini press until toasted and heated through.

MUCH LIKE THE UNICORN,

IT IS ALSO DELICIOUS.
