news Briefs

Petry writes that people will also insert a coin in a meter after a citation has been issued and while a ticket writer is present; feed the wrong meter; get booted while time is on the meter; drive to another space and feed the meter while not noticing a parking ticket; and place a parking ticket on someone else's car. — Alan Pittman

VIDEO STORE INVENTORY PURCHASED

The remainder of the inventory of Flicks and Pics store on Friendly Street in Eugene has been sold to an independent video store in Cottage Grove named Abraxas Video, according to Abraxas owners James and Debbie Kiser.

Part of the Flicks and Pics stock was previously acquired by the Eugene Library, and part was sold to the public.

"My wife and I obtained the inventory in order to preserve the collection and continue to offer it to the public," says James Kiser. "The purchase included some 1,000 or so DVD titles, nearly 16,000 VHS titles, and an as yet undetermined number of video games."

CORRECTIONS/CLARIFICATIONS

Despite our headline to the contrary in News Briefs last week, Norman Solomon was not physically in Eugene last week to talk about his War made Easy DVD showing. The press information sent to us did not say he would only be available via conference call.
