INSIGHT SEMINARS
UNIVERSITY OF OREGON

LOVE and ROMANCE | The ART of THINKING

In 2007-8 we will offer two series of seminars. The first is on the theme of "Love and Romance" in the world's Great Books. The second, "The Art of Thinking," explores philosophical approaches to urgent contemporary issues. Discussions will be led by UO professors of English and philosophy. Classes are held in the beautiful new Lillis Business Complex, 955 East 13th Avenue, on campus (convenient parking). Each four-week course costs $90.

Call (541) 346-3475, or register online at uoinisight.uoregon.edu

Introductory Seminar THE ART OF THINKING

A one-day seminar to resuscitate the reading and thinking habits of adults. Can thinking philosophically help us confront real life issues like unhappiness, frustration, aging, and dying?

Saturday, September 22, 10:00 a.m.-2:00 p.m. at the Jordan Schnitzer Museum of Art, 1430 Johnson Lane. $35 (includes lunch and books)
