Help Wanted

REQUEST FOR QUALIFICATIONS: The Community Center for the Performing Arts (CCPA), a non-profit, 501-c-3 corporation, seeks AIA architect to lead design process for retrofit, restoration, and expansion of the historic Woodmen of the World Hall (WOW Hall) in Eugene, Oregon. The W.O.W. Hall is listed in the National Register of Historic Places and is designated as a City Landmark due to its high integrity, protected interior and exterior. Immediate need is for design of HVAC system and sound attenuation measures with interior elements that maintain the historic character of the Hall and mechanical elements suitable for a performing arts center that anticipate future expansion of the facility. CCPA is currently seeking funds for development of a facility master plan to guide restoration, sound attenuation improvements, and expansion of the WOW Hall. Candidate must have proven historic preservation and performing arts facilities expertise. Previous project documentation and references required. Call for information packet. Respond by November 15, 2007. Contact: Community Center for the Performing Arts, W.O.W. Hall 541-687-2746, www.info@wowhall.org
