I, FLATHEAD
Ry Cooder

The Songs of Kash Buk and the Klowns

RY COODER'S I, Flathead, is the culmination of his ambitious and fascinating 'California Trilogy,' the last of 3 albums in which the singer and guitarist journeys through the real and imagined history of mid-20th century, multi-ethnic California, sampling the sounds of its barrios and byways, its nightclubs and honky tonks.

CUTE IS WHAT WE AIM FOR – Believe me, I do understand why CIWWAF are so highly regarded by their rabid fanbase. The band are probably tighter and more compact than they were last time round, possibly due to the addition of Dave Mellillo who has helped to trim the fat and tighten up the choruses.

WARREN HAYNES - Recorded live at Warren Haynes 18th Annual Christmas Jam in Asheville, NC, The Benefit Concert Volume 8 is the third release in an on-going series documenting the annual concerts. As with each previous benefit, all proceeds from this series of concerts and CD and DVD releases benefit Habitat For Humanity.

IMMORTAL TECHNIQUE has toured the world, being praised in publications like XXL, The Source, The Washington Post, Allhiphop.com, Playboy and even the URB magazine cover in Nov.2006. Now he has collaborated with world famous DJ Green Lantern to mix Street Hip Hop with the vivid landscape of global struggle.

LESS THAN JAKE, an American ska punk band originally formed in 1992 as a power pop trio, the band evolved into a hybrid of third-wave ska and punk pop, with added elements of modern rock and even metal. GNV FLA is the seventh full-length studio album from Less Than Jake. The album's title is an abbreviation of the band's hometown, Gainesville, Florida.

LIZ PHAIR is a US singer-songwriter and guitarist. Her signature guitar, which she is often seen playing, is a Fender Duo-Sonic II. Her album Exile in Guyville was chosen as one of Rolling Stone's 500 Greatest Albums of All Time. This 2 disc set includes 4 previously unreleased audio tracks and a DVD with a documentary about the album's genesis.

RECKLESS KELLY is back on the rock n' roll stage with "Bulletproof", their most ambitious and venomous album to date. Rollicking guitars and a relentlessly aggressive rhythm section pound out political statements alongside epic road anthems and ragged love songs.

SHINEDOWN - The record opens with lead single 'Devour.' Its heavy onslaught of ripping guitars and relentless drums would not sound out of place on a Guitar Hero soundtrack. Their face-melting rock comes as no surprise, considering that the band hails from sultry Jacksonville, Florida.

SIGUR ROS - Med Sud I Eyrum Vid Spilum Endalaust is truly a groundbreaking album for Sigur Ros. It's the first time they've attempted to write, record, mix, release and support (by touring) an album in the same year. The result is pretty much their leave home album, the anti-Heima.

WATERMELON SLIM is a relatively new luminary of the blues, rapidly building a career behind four albums and constant touring. In 2008 Slim was nominated for six awards, a feat matched only by the likes of B.B. King, Buddy Guy, and Robert Cray. Slim has twelve nominations in the last two years, a feat unmatched in the event's 29 years. The highly anticipated follow up to 'The Wheel Man' is entitled 'No Paid Holidays' and features Lee Roy Parnell on slide guitar.

THE WATSON TWINS are based around the harmonies and musical underpinnings of Chandra and Leigh Watson, who are indeed twins. For those who grew acquainted with the sounds of the twins when they helped turn Jenny Lewis' more-or-less first solo effort into an artistic coup de grace, you will rejoice with the mix of sunshine and crunch on Fire Songs. For the uninitiated, The Watson Twins live and breathe ochre-tinged folk-rock, each track sinking into the twilight-most often drowsily but with a thunderous undercurrent.
