ACTIVIST ALERT

• A public forum on “Burning Forests for Electricity and Liquid Fuels” is planned for 6:30 to 8:30 pm Thursday, March 5, at Harris Hall, 8th and Oak in Eugene, co-sponsored by Cascadia's Ecosystem Advocates (eco-advocates.org) and SustainEugene.org. Presenters include Mark Robinowitz on “Peak Forests and the Electric Power Grid”; David Monk on “Air Pollution From Forest Biofuels”; and Samantha Chirillo on “Dispelling Myths: Forest Biofuels Impact on Forests & Climate.”

• Donations are still needed for Project Homeless Connect March 6 at the Fairgrounds. The one-day, one-stop event provides critical services and basic necessities to people who are homeless, or at risk of becoming homeless. Guests are offered free onsite services including medical exams, dental checkups, vision care, hot meals, haircuts and basic provisions. Contacts: Sophia McDonald at 682-4614, or Pearl Wolfe at 556-4428. Needed items include hats, gloves, socks, coats, sleeping bags, backpacks, children's clothing, canes, crutches and personal hygiene products. Donations are being accepted at St. Vincent de Paul stores in Eugene, Springfield and Florence. Items should be labeled “Project Homeless Connect.”

• The Cascadia Wildlands Project will be leading an all-day hike into the proposed Devils Staircase Wilderness, Saturday, March 7, and also Saturday, April 4. The first hike is a moderate trek through wild old-growth forest on BLM land that ends at Wassen Creek. The second, difficult hike is to Devil's Staircase waterfall. RSVP and find out more details by contacting Dave at 689-7189 or email david@dtvedt.com

• The Climate Crisis Working Group is holding a public forum, “Legislative Action for Climate Protection,” at 7 pm Wednesday, March 11, at Harris Hall, 8th and Oak. Legislators and community leaders
