

ON THE WEB THIS WEEK

• In News: More letters to the editor, and more content from this week's annual Outdoors special issue.

• At blogs.eugeneweekly.com: Molly blogs about Buy Indie Day in support of locally owned book stores and other businesses. Camilla posts a trailer for the quirky new TV show The Goode Family, and blogs about the $4,450 fine levied against Swanson Pest Management after a misapplication of pesticides killed a Florence woman in 2005. Alan shows us an abundance of skin (not his) in the "Nike Naked Running Camp" video.
