SONIC YOUTH - THE ETERNAL: Sonic Youth return to an indie label with their sixteenth studio album. 'The Eternal.' It's a supercharged rocker, recalling aspects of Evol-Sister-Daydream Nation holy trinity, but with cleaner, louder production. 'The Eternal' takes the melodic songwriting of 2006's 'Rather Ripped' and slams down the accelerator pedal.

Released Tuesday, June 30, 2009

JASON NEVINS - ULTRA WEEKEND 5: The next installment in summer's essential dance compilation series is a double CD containing the biggest club hits, radio mixes/remixes, and some of the world's top DJs. Includes: David Guetta, Chris Willis, Fergie, Ludacris, Nelly Furtado, Tiesto, Avril Lavigne and more.

$12<sup>99</sup>

DAVE ALVIN & THE GUILTY WOMEN - SELF TITLED: Alvin decided to move in an exciting new musical direction. In October 2008 he stepped onto the stage of the Hardly Strictly Bluegrass Festival in San Francisco with an all-star, all-female group. The self-titled debut led by Alvin, is a spirited collection of thoughtful yet dynamic tunes.

Released Tuesday, June 23, 2009

LEMONHEADS - VARSHONS: The Lemonheads make each track their own, with help from actress Liv Tyler, singing back up on Leonard Cohen's Hey, That's No Way To Say Goodbye, and Kate Moss, who sings over the dance groove of Arling & Cameron's Dirty Robot. Also featured on lead guitar and backing vocals throughout most of the album is John Perry.

$10<sup>99</sup>

THE MARS VOLTA - OCTAHEDRON: Grammy winner for Best Hard Rock Performance, The Mars Volta's punkperverted neo-psychedelia goes acoustic on Octahedron. Says the band's Cedric Bixler Zavala: 'There's electricity throughout it! But that's what our band does-celebrate mutations.'

$10<sup>99</sup>

KASABIAN - WEST RYDER PAUPER LUNATIC ASYLUM: For this album, the band recruited American Hip Hop and Electronica producer Dan The Automator, who is best known for his work on the first Gorillaz album. Two years in the making, the album is the sound of a band at the peak of their powers.
