thumbs,” including Monsanto, the Oregon Department of Forestry, and the Pesticide Division of the Oregon Department of Agriculture. Speaker Day Owen will speak on, “Who are the Real Eco-Terrorists?”

• A Willamette River open space survey is now available for public input through the Lane Council of Governments website at www.lcog.org. LCOG is “coordinating an effort to create an inspiring open space vision for the Willamette River corridor,” according to the agency. “This vision will help lead the way for coordinated efforts to further improve this outstanding open space resource in the coming years and decades.” The short survey asks people how they currently use the parks and open space along the river in the Eugene-Springfield area, and asks for ideas.

Todd blogs about the band Universal Studios Florida. Camilla posts a video of Bill O'Reilly calling UO “liberal” and other silly talk about academic ethics (thanks, Oregon Daily Emerald).

ON THE WEB THIS WEEK

• Expanding entries in The Next Big Thing local music contest. More than 55 songs are now posted, with some great feedback from readers. The website is getting heavy traffic with some 17,000 page views from thousands of unique visitors.

• On the blog: More letters to the editor. Sheena Lahren's story and video of Faerieworlds is posted on Suzi's blog.

CORRECTIONS/ CLARIFICATIONS

• In our news story “City Club Shocker” last week (8/6), the reference to Citizens Review Board should have been Civilian Review Board.
