AIR-LOVE 2: With such an impressive body of work behind them, the band is now free to write and record as the inspiration takes them and able to draw on their very own musical lexicon honed over 12 years of active duty and an enviable collection of vintage synthesizers, guitars, and assorted gadgets that grace Atlas, their very own state-of-the-art recording studio nestled in the leafy backstreets of northern Paris.

DEL THE FUNKY HOMOSAPIEN / TAME ONE - PARALLEL UNI-VERSES: Parallel Uni-Verses is that rare rap album which transcends tired cliches and maintains traditional hip-hop values without seeming retro or passe. Proving that true lyricism is alive and well, Parallel Uni-Verses is another feather in the cap for Del and Tame, two prolific and highly-respected artists upholding the hip-hop art form at its best.

FLIGHT OF THE CONCHORDS I TOLD YOU I WAS FREAKY: I Told You I Was Freaky is, among a great many other things, a genre-tripping tour de force and includes songs from the second series of their popular and award-winning/nominated HBO TV show.

GOSSIP-MUSIC FOR MEN: Like a combo of Stevie Nicks and Dolly Parton channeling Janis Joplin in front of your favorite local punk band - My God, It's FULL OF WIN!! The genre-bending DIY post-punk rock trio Gossip bring a new level of lyrical power and musical sophistication to their ever-evolving, always-electrifying sound and sensibility on Music For Men, the indie group's first major label studio album.

IMMORTAL-ALL SHALL FALL: For nearly two decades, Immortal have been creating unique, skull-scraping Black Metal, always remaining one step ahead of everyone else. The band has finally found a stable line up with Abbath on guitars/vocals, Horgh on drums, Apollyon on bass and Demonaz still doing the lyrics.

JAMIE T - KINGS & QUEENS: Kings & Queens is exactly the album that Jamie T's admirers hoped he would make... full of the gutter poetry, anger and humour of the first album. But tougher, more focused, more confident... and with even better tunes. Jamie is happy with his work, and typically defiant and self-deprecating in his ambitions for it.

LOS LONELY BOYS-1969 (EP): With their signature blend of Latin rhythms, searing guitar leads, and impeccable harmonies, the band traces their artistic lineage through tracks like Santana's Evil Ways and The Beatles She Came In Through the Bathroom Window. Legendary engineer Andy Johns provides timeless and incendiary mixing. In addition to recording Blind Faith classic Well All Right, also a featured track on the EP.

JAMES MCMURTRY-LIVE IN EUROPE: Two disc (CD/DVD) live release from the acclaimed singer/songwriter. In early 2009, James McMurtry traveled overseas for his first European tour. The guys played for enthusiastic crowds in Germany, Great Britain, Ireland, The Netherlands, Scotland, and Belgium. Joining McMurtry's band on keyboards for the tour was the legendary Ian McLagan (who also played on McMurtry's latest studio album, Just Us Kids).

MISSION OF BURMA-SOUND THE SPEED THE LIGHT: Far more spacious and dynamic, it blasts off with the anthemic, catchy '1, 2, 3, Party!', a classic Burma rocker on a level with 'This Is Not A Photograph' or 'Certain Fate.' Other tracks, such as 'Feed,' 'Forget Yourself,' and 'Slow Faucet,' are slow, hypnotic builders. 'Good Cheer' is a burst of almost uncontrollable joy that literally explodes from the speakers.

PLACE TO BURY STRANGERS-EXPLODING HEAD: You'll be sucked in and blown away by the paranoid android Pop of the album's first single 'In Your Heart,' the gorgeous gate-crashing melodies of 'Keep Slipping Away,' the Chinese water torture chords of 'Lost Feeling,' the sputtering percussion of 'Everything Always Goes Wrong,' the apocalypse now effects of 'Ego Death,' the sinewy, slightly sinister overtones of the title track, and the firework finale flare-ups of 'I Lived My Life To Stand In The Shadow Of Your Heart.'

SPIRAL STAIRS-REAL FEEL: Pavement guitarist and Preston School Of Industry mainman SPIRAL STAIRS (Scott Kannberg) returns with a heart-on-sleeve (but occasionally tongue-in-cheek) songcycle about his complicated personal life. Spiral maintains his trademark melodic whoops and Flying Nun guitar licks, but overlays a layer of melancholy and wisdom, as well as a touch of Peter Green blues. Alert listeners will also spot Richard Thompson, Captain Beefheart, and The Died Pretty.

SUMMER SET-LOVE LIKE THIS: Simply put, The Summer Set is one of the most naturally talented pop bands to come out of the scene in the last few years. The group's first LP, Love Like This, is definitely a solid venture, and a testament to the troupe's seemingly boundless knack for writing killer pop anthems. Love is a promising collection of charming gems from this band on the rise.
