Everybody deserves a good home

Buster is ready to come home with you! This handsome little guy is one year-old with solid black fur. Buster is a little wary of strangers so you may need to spend some extra time getting to know him but after a little one-on-one, he is an affectionate and sweet fellow. Once you're acquainted, he'll even be happy to warm up your lap for you! A few of his favorite things include playing hide and seek, fooling around with his feline friends, and having his head and neck scratched. Buster gets along well with other cats but hasn't experienced living with dogs or children yet. He is looking forward to joining a quieter household to match his mellow personality. During the month of October, the adoption fees of all solid black cats are 50% off, including Buster's! Come meet with loveable guy today at Greenhill Humane Society.
