CYPRESS HILL—RISE UP: Includes 'Armada Latina' featuring Marc Anthony & Pitbull and the incendiary title track, 'Rise Up', which features Rage Against The Machine's Tom Morello. Ingeniously crafted, the collaboration on 'Armada Latina' brings forth the strength and presence always commanded by Cypress Hill. 'It was great to work with my longtime friends and comrades Cypress Hill on these two monster rock tracks,' says Morello. 'Cypress are back with a vengeance!'

GOATSLAKE—FLOWER OF DISEASE: CD reissue of this 2000 album from the Los Angeles-based Doom Rock/Stoner outfit. After the release of Goatsnake's 1999 debut album and its follow up EP Dog Days, the very next release was Flower of Disease. The album was recorded in two weeks at Grand Master Studios in Hollywood. It was engineered and mixed by Nick Raskulinecz (Danzig, Foo Fighters, Probot, & Alice In Chains).

KOTTONMOUTH KINGS—LONG LIVE THE KINGS: It is the dawn of a new era in the Kottonmouth Kingdom and Long Live the Kings, their 11th album, rises to the occasion. For the release of this epic recording, the Kottonmouth Kings have reinvented themselves yet again by adding The Dirtball, who joins the fold as a full-time member.

KURUPT—STREETLIGHTS: While connected to and well respected on the West Coast, Kurupt's lyrical skills are nationally known and recognized. Streetlights features production by Terrace Martin (Snoop, Dr. Dre, Dogg Pound, Quincy Jones), Lil Jon and the great Pete Rock! Features include Snoop Dogg, DJ Quik, XZIBIT, Rell, up and coming West Coast star Problem and others.

MGMT—CONGRATULATIONS: With Congratulations, MGMT offer a heartfelt 'Hear! Hear!' and an invitation to join the group in a new musical odyssey mirroring the psyches of the band's core duo, Andrew VanWyngarden and Ben Goldwasser, inspired by their adventures on the frontiers of 21st century pop & roll consciousness.

XAVIER RUDD—KOONYUM SUN: 2010 release from the Australian singer/songwriter. Bright sunny skies, white sand beaches and rolling turquoise waves is where Rudd recorded Koonyum Sun. Moving away from the heavier edged sound that he pursued on Dark Shades Of Blue, Xavier is back to up his beat, hip-swaying sound that has been his my stay on previous recordings.
