RETROFITTING SUBURBIA

A City Design Lecture by Ellen Dunham-Jones

Thursday, February 3, 2011
7:30pm

Baker Downtown Center
 975 High Street
 Eugene, OR

This lecture is sponsored by the University of Oregon School of Architecture and Allied Arts, the Southwestern Oregon Chapter of the American Institute of Architects, the Oregon Transportation Research and Education Consortium, and the UO Urban Design Lab.

Ellen Dunham-Jones is the co-author of Retrofitting Suburbia and a Professor of Architecture at Georgia Tech University. She will discuss how communities can support growth by modifying low-density, auto-oriented suburbs into walkable, mixed-use communities that support more livable densities, more equitable access to transit, and more appropriate open spaces for user of all ages.

Lecture is free and open to the public.
 Free parking is available - if needed, please use 10th Street to access the parking lot directly behind the Baker Center.
