

FRESHLY SQUEEZED

EXENE CERVENKA-EXCITEMENT OF MAYBE: The album brings together the innocence of young love, the gravity of departure, and the symbolic changing of seasons. The lead track 'Already In Love' builds on Exene's characteristic blend of folk, deep country and poppy yet wide-open spaces with the uplifting punch of horn lines.

DEADLOCK-BIZARRO WORLD: Since its introduction in DC comics in the early 60s the concept of Bizarro has been ingrained in pop culture; so has the concept of Bizarro World. With their newest record Deadlock are now designing their interpretation of a world built-up on extremes and antitheses.

CAITLIN ROSE-OWN SIDE NOW: Own Side Now is sheer perfection, drawing further on her love for the female greats such as Linda Ronstadt and Stevie Nicks (Fleetwood Mac's 'That's Alright' gets a delightful airing here) as well as those from a pure Country lineage such as Patsy Cline, and firmly places her in the same league.

SIMON & GARFUNKEL-BRIDGE OVER TROUBLED WATER: 40TH ANNIVERSARY: Celebrating the anniversary of this remarkable record, the album is paired with a very special DVD featuring Songs Of America - a CBS TV special is comprised of footage of the '69 tour. Songs of America has never before been commercially available since its 1969 broadcast which TV sponsors refused to endorse because of its anti-Vietnam War message.

LEEROY STAGGER-LITTLE VICTORIES: Leeroy Stagger has a performing history opening shows for the likes of The Pixies, Ron Sexsmith, Tegan and Sara, Kathleen Edwards, George Thorogood, etc., Stagger is no stranger to the stage. Thriving on live performance, he is truly happy when he is on the road playing and connecting personally with his loyal fans.

KURT VILE-SMOKE RING FOR MY HALO: Kurt Vile has a way of tying time in knots. You can hear it on his new album Smoke Ring For My Halo from the get-go - the pinwheeling guitars and reaching atmospheres of 'Baby's Arms' are as strange as they are familiar: a demonstration of how Kurt can put worn methods and sounds through himself and end up with something that isn't emotionally or sonically.
