

FRESHLY SQUEEZED

BOWLING FOR SOUP-FISHIN' FOR WOOTS: Recorded at Valve Studio in the band's hometown of Dallas, TX, in late 2010, Bowling For Soup's 11th studio album features the fun lovin' rock band at their very best!

TONY CASTLES-NO SERVICE: Reconnected within a year after college, Paul Sicilian, Gabriel Wurzel and Willie Miesmer began playing together in loose, free form sessions. The chemistry was instant. They continued inventing, deconstructing and reinventing their sound of both strong vocal melody and open space.

BOOTSY COLLINS-THA FUNK CAPITOL OF THE WORLD: Collins collaborated with fellow P-Funkers George Clinton and Bernie Worrell on the record, along with an all-star lineup of musicians and cultural luminaries. The album also features a tribute to Garry Shider, the late guitarist and musical director of the P-Funk All-Stars.

STEVE EARLE-I'LL NEVER GET OUT OF THIS WORLD ALIVE (DIG): This album shares a title with a historical novel he was writing and the last single Hank Williams wrote in his brief lifetime. Most of these 11 songs share Williams sense of mortality and try to glimpse at the world beyond the one we see.

FLEET FOXES-HELPLESSNESS BLUES: Fleet Foxes heighten and extend themselves, adding instrumentation, with a focus on clear, direct lyrics, and an emphasis on group vocal harmonies. The prevailing theme of the album is the struggle between who you are, who you want to be and how sometimes you are the only thing getting in the way of that.

EMMYLOU HARRIS-HARD BARGAIN: Already celebrated as a discoverer and interpreter of other artists songs, 12-time Grammy Award-winner Emmylou Harris has, in the last decade, become admired as much for her eloquently straightforward songwriting as for her incomparably expressive singing.

STEVE MILLER-LET YOUR HAIR DOWN: Steve Miller sorted through an astronomical number of rhythm and blues, and blues recordings from his CD library seeking material for the auspicious Skywalker Ranch sessions. Also available as a Special Edition featuring 4 bonus tracks.

STEVIE NICKS-IN YOUR DREAMS: Written and recorded at Nicks' Los Angeles home and is co-produced by Dave Stewart and Glen Ballard. Nicks and Stewart co-wrote seven of the album's thirteen songs.

OTEP-ATAVIST: 2011 release, the fifth studio album from the L.A.-based Heavy Metal outfit. The album features the single 'Fists Fall' plus a cover of The Doors' classic 'Not To Touch The Earth'.

SIXX: A.M.-THIS IS GONNA HURT: This album is the follow up to the successful The Heroin Diaries Soundtrack, which sold over 340,000 CDs in the United States and produced a #1 rock song with 'Life is Beautiful' in 2008.

TUNE-YARDS-W H O K I L L: Garbus has applied the Tune-yards live approach to her studio work for the first time in w h o k i l l. Her tools have not changed. Rather, she's added more buttons and joints to those already being used. The opportunities exploited are evident in w h o k i l l's dynamic range as it matches Garbus' creative strides.

YOUNGER BROTHER-VACCINE: Younger Brother's third album, recorded with it's U.S. band lineup (Marc Brownstein/Disco Biscuits, Joe Russo/Furthur, Tommy Hamilton/Brothers Past), is the boldest chapter in their story to date. Vaccine sounds like no other record ever made, marrying top-quality, stadium-size songcraft to pulsing beats and sound palette of full-tilt electronic music.
