★ Well, we prefer to call it "Beethoven's Ninth" because we like every single movement (actually, we don't love the third, but we'll give it a pass because it's surrounded by so much awesome), not only the final, towering choral bit. Yes, it's overperformed by everyone from the Eugene Symphony to Portland to ... well, who would have thunk to see it at the Oregon Bach Festival? That's all right; this is a superb orchestra, a superb chorus and a legendary conductor giving their all to one of the finest creations of humanity. Yes. We're going to go ahead and get earnest and say it: This truly is an ode to the joy of community and music. Don't miss it.
