

BATTLE OF THE BREWERIES

Eugene vs. Corvallis in a Civil War of Beer

PHOTO BY JACKSON VOELKEL

Rivalries give us purpose, and purpose is to the mind what water is to the body. Most will agree, however, that if given the choice between water and beer, the latter supercedes the former — especially in Oregon, a state full of beer that is home to one of the greatest rivalries of all time: Ducks vs. Beavers, which translates to something like Eugene vs. Corvallis.

It would be no fun if the two towns couldn't find yet one more forum in which to compete. Given that Oregon's breweries crafted 1,085,000 barrels of beer from 91 brewing companies working from 121 brewing facilities in roughly 50 cities in the past year, beer seems a more than worthy medium.

So, we declare yet another war: a war to prove once and for all who runs the show here in our little valley of Beervana. In the following pages you will find a run down of the teams, the players and, of course, the beer!

Oregon's Oldest Craft Brewery

WWW.BRIDGEPORTBREW.COM

BRIDGEPORT BREWING COMPANY

PORTLAND, OR

THE HOP CZAR RULES with a DOUBLE FERMENTED FIST

FORMULA | IMPERIAL INDIA PALE ALE | DEFINITION | A BEERY BLISS ACHIEVABLE BY BOLD BREWS FROM PASSIONATE BREWERS

LONG LIVE THE HOP CZAR LONG LIVE BEERVANA

