TRUSTEE'S NOTICE OF SALE
Reference is made to that certain Trust Deed (herein the "Trust Deed") made by Maria Sue Basham, as Grantor, to First American Title Insurance Company of Oregon, Trustee, with Christopher V. Miller and Mary Miller, husband and wife or the survivor thereof, as the Beneficiary recorded April 20, 2004, as Reception No. 2004-028758, in the Lane County Deeds and Records. The beneficial interest in said trust deed was assigned to Christopher V. Miller and Mary L. Miller, or their successors in interest, as Trustees of the Miller Joint Trust (a revocable grantor type trust without set expiration date) dated August 5, 2008 by instrument recorded in the Lane County Deeds and Records as Reception No. 2008-045647, covering the following described real property (herein the "real property"): The North 50 feet of Lot 16, and the East 30 feet of the North 50 feet of Lot 15, Block 1, A. C. BORNSTEDT COMPANY ADDITION to Creswell, as platted and recorded in Volume 4, Page 55, Lane County Oregon Plat Records, in Lane County, Oregon. The real property is located at the address commonly known as 293 N. 5th Street, Creswell, OR 97426. A Substitution of Trustee was recorded on May 23, 2011 as Reception No. 2011-023758, which provides that Michael P. Kearney, Attorney at Law, was substituted as Trustee under such Trust Deed. Both the beneficiary and the trustee have elected to sell the real property to satisfy the obligations secured by the trust deed and a notice of default has been recorded pursuant to Oregon Revised Statutes 86.735(3); the default for which the foreclosure is made is grantor's failure to pay when due the following sums: Monthly payments of $627.69 each since February 2011 and for each month and continuing thereafter through the date of this Notice of Default and Election to Sell. By reason of this default, the beneficiary has declared all sums owing on the obligation secured by the Trust Deed immediately due and payable, which are: The sum of $61,478.55 plus accrued interest at the rate of $13.47 per day from February 15, 2011, until paid, late charges, Trustee fees, attorney fees and costs of foreclosure from February 15, 2011 to the date of payment. Notice is given that the undersigned trustee will on October 27, 2011, at the hour of 10:00 a.m., in accordance with the standard of time established by ORS 187.110, at the Lane County Courthouse, 125 E. 8th Avenue, City of Eugene, County of Lane, State of Oregon, sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash the interest in the real property which the grantor had or had power to convey at the time of the execution by him of the trust deed, together with any interest which the grantor or his successors in interest acquired after the execution of the trust deed, to satisfy the foregoing obligations thereby secured and the costs and expenses of sale, including a reasonable charge by the trustee. Notice is further given that any person named in ORS 86.753 has the right, at any time prior to five days before the date last set for the sale, to have this foreclosure proceeding dismissed and the trust deed reinstated by payment to the beneficiary of the entire amount then due (other than such portion of the principal as would not then be due had no default occurred) and by curing any other default complained of herein that is capable of being cured by tendering the performance required under the obligation or trust deed, and in addition to paying such sums or tendering the performance necessary to cure the default, by paying all costs and expenses actually incurred in enforcing the obligation and trust deed, together with trustee's and attorney's fees not exceeding the amounts provided by said ORS 86.753. DATED: May 19, 2011. Michael P. Kearney, Attorney at Law, Trustee, 800 Willamette Street, Suite 800, P.O. Box 1758, Eugene, OR 97440. (541) 485-8888. Date of first publication: August 18, 2011. # ¡ASK A MEXICAN!

BY GUSTAVO ARELLANO

Dear Mexican: This is going to sound absolutely and totally Caucasian. Lately, we have been trying to lighten the mood around the office with delicate bits of international confections. With all that's going on in the world, who needs one more worry? With that said, we are struck with yet another issue to ponder. Just the other day at my birthday celebration, I quite insisted on a lilac-toned bomb cake from a pricey bakery in Monterey. In addition to this, some of my Mexican sisters brought something called the Tres Leches. To try to begin to describe the subtle richness and the coolness upon the tongue, left my bomb cake standing alone like a wall flower at a seventh-grade dance. To this end, we are still arguing what in the heck is the THIRD leche in the Tres Leches? We have cow as leche number uno, goat as leche number dos ... however, the mind spins with the possibilities of the tres leches?
— Rattled in Ryan Ranch

Dear Gabacha: I'm glad you enjoyed pastel de tres leches, but unless your Mexi amigas bought a gourmet version, you're wrong on all counts. Tres leches cake is traditionally made with evaporated milk, condensed milk, and a layer of cream on top. Usually, Mexicans use goat milk to make cajeta, the mestizo cousin of caramel — but cajeta usually doesn't go on pastel de tres leches. You can drizzle that on the pastel de tres leches — wash it down with horchata, and you'll have the sweetest combo to come out of Mexico since Salma Hayek's breasts.

While trying to instill some history into my girlfriend, who is also Mexican (well, I was born acá, y ella, allá) I told her that maize was first harvested by Aztecs, whereas she states that it was the Mayans who kept la yunta andando for corn first. Could you please enlighten her by telling that she's wrong?
— Mexican Light

Dear Wab: Drop the Aztec love, cabron! Everyone knows they were just a parasite empire that absorbed attributes from the many cultures and people that preceded them, from the Olmecs to Toltecs to Mayans to whoever the hell built Teotihuacán. And the fact is both of you are wrong. Trying to determine who domesticated corn is as impossible as finding a Mexican-owned truck without a sticker of a bull, their hometown, or stick figures depicting their family, but the great book America's First Cuisines notes scientists in 1964 found evidence of domestication and harvesting in the Tehuacan valley (around the states of Puebla and Oaxaca) dating back to 5,000 B.C. — more than 2,000 years before aliens built the pyramids in Egypt as guides or whatever the latest Coast to Coast A.M. explanation is. The domestication of maize (and the miracle that is nixtamalization, which makes masa possible) is Mexico's greatest gift to the world, greater even than Salma Hayek's boobs of glory.

CRAZY NEWS! You're favorite columna is being turned into a play! ¡Ask a Mexican! will get its first-ever reading this Friday at the prestigious Off-Broadway Atlantic Theater Company as part of their annual Latino Mixfest. A special gracias to my writing partner, Atlantic's artistic leadership associate Jaime Castaneda (a Tejano, but that's okay), for wanting to do this. For my Puebla York cabrones interested in attending the reading: it's free, but you must RSVP—more info at atlantictheater.org. For everyone else—start bugging your local theater company to stage the play come next year!
