25 Years of Experience
 License #14017

Our brother, Eric Branden Skinner, died unexpectedly of unknown causes February 3rd at 46 years of age. He loved his wife Araina, daughter Misha and son Micah with all of his heart and lit up the lives of many in our community with his gift of friendship and beautiful blue eyes. Eric's incredible sensitivity was a direct gift from his mother Donna Leavitt. His love for his sister Christine and brother Joel ran deep.

Eric's other loves included: his faith, wrestling with Micah, singing with Misha, homesteading with Araina, playing music with his friends, wandering the McKenzie, coastal camping adventures, The Oregon Country Fair, Bruce Cockburn, pinball, and The Honey Badger.

Many know Eric from his school years in Springfield, 18 years smiling behind the register at Sundance, and his successful career in real estate at Eugene's Alternative.

Donations for the family can be made to the Eric Skinner Memorial Fund at Oregon Community Credit Union.

A memorial service will be held at Poole-Larsen Funeral Home in Eugene on Friday, February 10th at 10 AM. No shirt, no shoes, no service.
