Art from Shannon Knight's "Service Ceiling"

Although the sun may not be shining on this last Friday of the month, Eugene's artists most definitely will be. There are more than a few galleries set to keep art-walkers in stride.

Zdreams will be premiering the vibrant digital and psychedelic work of Ron LaFond, at his show "Visionary Computer Art Prints." And practically next door, at Territorial Vineyards, you'll want to stop in and check out the "Autist Artism" exhibit as well as live music by Manouche Noir. The wine is well worth sticking around for, but if you're still hot to trot, The Eugene Whiteaker International Hostel will be hosting the multi-medium aesthetics of the artist Manium, in a show entitled "Springly." If beer is more your style, the Ninkasi Tasting Room features "Service Ceiling," mixed media by Shannon Knight.

For those in the mood to take a bit longer of a stroll, Jawbreaker Gallery will have "Organic Expressions," the wood block prints of John Seven.

Check out lastfridayartwalk.wordpress.com for a map. As always, Last Friday ArtWalk is free.
