TRACK TOWN PIZZA

Franklin Blvd. 541-284-8484. tracktownpizza.net

Go for all things track and Duck and sport, Track Town is not for the traditional but delicious pizza and salad restaurant.

EVERGREEN INDIAN CUISINE

Franklin Blvd. 541-343-7944. evergreenindianrestaurant.com

February is over and the sun makes its return, getting a little evergreen and eating outside couldn't be more pleasant. We recommend the garlic naan, mango chutney and vindaloo.

BATES STEAK HOUSE & SALOON

Broadway. 541-683-3108. batessteakhouse.com

Inspired by the athletes to walk a little farther, Bates is about a mile from Hayward Field, and you'll need that extra walk to burn off a few steak calories. We tried a couple months ago at Chef's Night Out — the trip is magical.

LITTLE BIG BURGER

1404 Orchard St. 541-357-4771. littlebigburger.com

Go for the burgers, stay for the ketchup. Even though the menu is simple, LBB cranks out delicious burgers and veggie burgers, and truffle oil and spicy ketchup make the fries irresistible. You might want to pick up a bottle of the ketchup to take home.

WILD DUCK

1419 Villard St. 541-485-3825. wildduckcafe.net

Avoid leaving the sports scene behind with this sports bar that features local beef and buns in dishes like the spicy jalapeño burger, smoked salmon pancakes and, of course, the Chips Kelly.

FALLING SKY BREWING

Oak Alley. 541-505-7096. fallingskybrewing.com

Beer is good, but it's the pulled pork and field burger — no wait, it's the rotating seasonal menu — no wait, it's the unbelievable cran-blu green peppercorn — oh heck, we just keep coming back for more. After a meal or two, the feeling will be mutual.

3rd Ave. 541-653-8509. ryeon3rd.com

Young restaurant with a seasonal menu, mostly of European influence with some Americana thrown in, uses no entrée item more than $20 and drinks, beer and wine paired with the menu. We're predicting a long, successful run.

Quite the selection of traditional and more experimental dishes is available at Agate Alley, and as always we have to give a shout-out to the pumpkin enchiladas. Check out their website for weekly events like fondue Mondays and taco Tuesdays.

BEPPE & GIANNI'S

1646 E. 19th Ave. 541-683-6661. beppeandgiannis.net

This Italian joint is a classy restaurant with a daily ravioli rotation, but it also has a kids' menu with simpler meals. Check it out for a slightly fancier meal.

PRINCE PÜCKLER'S

1605 E. 19th Ave. 541-344-4418. princepucklers.com

It's not unusual to see the line flowing out the door on summer nights, when the call of dozens of ice cream flavors beckons Eugeneans to this long-time local fave.

MCMENAMINS 19TH STREET

1485 E. 19th Ave. 541-342-4025. mcmenamins.com

EUGENE CITY BAKERY

1607 E. 19th Ave. 541-334-6906. eugencitybakery.com

Carb addicts: Check this place out; the bread makes the sandwiches. They also make a hell of a latte.
