Noggers may be the smallest of your friends, but he'll hold a big place in your heart! This little ball of fluff with tiny paws and a nub tail wants nothing more than to curl up in your lap and nap the day away. Gentle and tame, Noggers provides an excellent opportunity to teach young children about the care and respect that even the smallest of animals deserve. All small animals require daily exercise, frequent cage cleaning and fruits and vegetables in addition to their specific staple foods. You'll receive a free hamster education class at Greenhill before taking this little man home. Stop by Greenhill to meet Noggers today!
 Noggers is a 1 yr old Hamster and his adoption fee is $10.
 Kitten season is here and the homeless cat population is growing. Greenhill Humane Society offers free spay & neuter surgeries for feral, stray and free-roaming cats living in Lane County. Call (541) 689-1503 to learn more and make an appointment.

 Hi there I'm Matilda, a spunky little girl looking for a home where I can play and snuggle with my family and watch the world go by from a really big window. I am very talkative and I like to play with gentle kids, but I like quiet time too. If you have room in your home for an easy going kitty and a really tall cat tree stop by to meet me soon... I'll be waiting in the warehouse!
