Friends are welcome to join family in a celebration of life for our dear Howard Ingber who passed on this Wednesday, July 18th at the age of 63. He gave life his all, leaving New York City for the West Coast as a young man, joining the draft resisters movement in California, living with integrity in rural Canada, honing his skills and artistic sensibility as a carpenter/contractor in Eugene, supporting the WOW Hall as an active board member, and cheerleading for the Village School in innumerable ways as a dynamic volunteer and board member. Most of all he was a dear friend to so very many, actively involved in others' lives, encouraging, and sharing his spark and his passions. We love you, Howie. You will be profoundly missed. Your light will shine on through your children, stepchildren, grandchildren, and life partner.

A Celebration of Life
will be held at the Mt. Pisquah Arboretum on Tuesday, July 31st starting at 6PM with a potluck dinner followed by a service at 7PM
