You may have noticed that it's Kitten season. They're arriving in droves on a daily basis and taking over the shelters! Kittens are snatched up by adopters pretty quickly, but there are always a few little ones who are over looked. They have the same squeaky meow and clumsy playfulness as the others. They purr just as readily. The difference is that their fur is black. "What wrong with black?" you may ask. We don't know. Black cats most certainly possess the same capacity for love as any other. They're just a soft and just as sweet. Adopt a black cat today; you'll be just as glad you did. Feline Fridays continue through August at Greenhill Humane Society and 1st Avenue Shelter. Adoption fees for Kittens are reduced to $65 and Cats are just $45!
