Although they now boast an extensive touring record and monstrous discography, indie rock moguls Tegan and Sara had humble beginnings. The duo found its start in Calgary at the tender age of 15, after the identical Quin twins took first place at a localized battle of the bands. By age 20 they were signed, cut and printed for the world to hear, and the juicy new-wave licks and radical refrains began their evolution toward the Tegan and Sara of today. Seventeen years later, the Quin sisters are still rocking like Noah's Ark, and there ain't no one gonna stop them. Tegan & Sara open for the Shins 7pm Friday, Sept. 28, at Cuthbert Amphitheater; $30 adv., $35 D.O.S.

See Music Listings page 24.
