2012 is flying by, people. The end is nigh, supposedly, on Dec. 21, and so this month, the University of Oregon Folklore program began a series of film screenings entitled "Apocalypse Now ... and Then" that will run weekly through Wednesday, Nov. 21. Take a wild crack at what the films are about — yep, you guessed it: the end of the freaking world. The series includes such films as Children of Men (10-24), The Omega Man (11-7), Night of the Comet (11-21) and other such apocalyptic works. Are you a premillennial dispensationalist who simply adores cinema? Check this out before the earth checks out.

"Apocalypse Now ... and Then" film screenings take place 7pm every Wednesday, in Willamette Hall 110, UO Campus; FREE.
